Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec. 12, 1869.

Gentlemen: My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

C. H. TUCKER, Pas. Ag't Mich. C. R. R.
69 Washington street, Boston.

Every One Speaks Favorably,

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be sore at times, so that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your VEGETINE. After taking a few doses, I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor; and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. I have recommended it to several of my acquaintances; and every one speaks favorably of its good effect.

Yours truly P. S. SHERMAN.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, May 1, 1871.

DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have sold at retail, sixty-three dozen (756 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy, for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am personally cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, H. GILMAN,
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq. 468 Broadway.

FURTHER PROOF.

SPRINGFIELD, Me., May 4, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side, which was very painful. I saw VEGETINE advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle; her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what VEGETINE has done for my daughter, and I take every opportunity to recommend it to those who are not aware of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

Big Clark.

We lately mentioned in our foreign notes the death of Mr. Clark, of Melbourne and Tasmania, who was by far the wealthiest man in Australia, where the number of men would be regarded as rich from a London and New York standpoint is as yet very small. Mr. Clark emigrated to Tasmania very early in life, when that colony, which has now fallen into very decayed circumstances, was in a very prosperous plight, in consequence of the money circulated in maintaining the great convict depot there. Commencing as a butcher and cattle-dealer, he gradually bought up a great deal of land, and very soon after the discovery of gold in Victoria, recognized the expediency of making that colony his principal headquarters. In his capital work, Our Antipodes, the late Col. Mundy thus sketches him:

"Among the passengers my notice was particularly attracted to a tall, stout, Germanlike man, about fifty years of age, attired in a dirty drab Chesterfield, without waistcoat, gloves, or other expletives of dress, and who stood generally with hands in pockets, smoking his cigar and leaning against the funnel. When he did draw forth a great pair of freckled fists it was either to light another cigar, or to refer to a note-book. It was a note-book worth referring to! This was Mr. ——, well known as the great land-owner and land purchaser. Last year he purchased from the Government £28,000 worth of land in the Port Philip (Melbourne) District, which, at the minimum price of crown land, would give the same number of acres; and within his cabin door, whereat he keeps a sort of mastiff watch, although not a very apparent one, has a small portmonteau, in which, as he told me himself, he has at this moment £20,000, which he is carrying to Melbourne for another block of crown lands. In Van Dieman's Land (Tasmania) he has already 50,000 acres. This season he told me he had shared in New South Wales 90,000 and in Van Dieman's Land 40,000 sheep, and had sent to England 1,500 bales of wool, which at £20 a bale gives £30,000."

This was written twenty years ago, and Mr. Clark's operations have increased and multiplied at a great rate since then. A principal source of his enormous income was derived from making advances on their stock to needy "squatters." Fifteen per cent. was a very common price wth him, and not unfrequently he exacted two more for "trouble"—what the Scotch dub "fash." Of course the squatters in a great number of cases were unable to pay, and all they had became his. He would then allow them to continue on the run, allowing them out of the proceeds just enough to live on. He is reckoned "a very tough customer." His personal expenses have been computed at some $5,000 a year. He did not entertain, and dined almost every day early off a cheap dish at the Criterion, a well-known hotel in Bourke street, Melbourne, close to that part of it which answers to Wall street in New York. Mr. Clark being thus economical himself, was by no means disposed to allow his sons to spend much of his money. On one occasion "the old man" went to Europe, and acting on the principle that young Mr. Clark set up a very spicy team of four horses. "Ah," said a spectator, "he'd better get done with that before the governor gets home," and indeed we believe that he was wise in time and did not drive down with this magnificent equipage to meet his parent on his return. It was universally considered that the bump for money-getting was never more finely developed than in Mr. Clark, but he never in the least distinguished himself in any other way.

"When the cat's away
The mice will play."

A Fish Story.

We have heard so many affecting incidents of the overflow that it is really refreshing to hear anything so ludicrous as the following: The little town of Perlington, on Pearl river, is pretty well overflowed. A branch of the Poltevent mills is situated there, and consequently the place is well peopled with negro laborers. "Old Uncle Billy," a venerable old darkey, with side whiskers, has a cabin built near the river bank, and was among the first inundated. He was accosted on the street, the next morning after the rise, by a gentleman, with:

"Well, Uncle Billy, I hear you were pretty well drowned out last night; how is it?"

"Well, you see, Massa John, de ribber 'gin to rise up to my doo' about 8 o'clock. I nebber know'd my ole cabin was dat full of leaks 'fore, and de way dot ribber did rise on me was wusser dan de dead sea riz on old Faro. I 'clare for Moses, Massa John, I bleves dat ribber water was greased, for it crawled troo dem cracks slipperer than a possum tail.

"I didn't say nuffin till de ole cabin got kivered wid de overflow, and den I begin to bail her out. I bailed her and bailed till the mill bell struck twelve of de clock, and den I gined her up, and toted my old chist to de tudder side of the cabin and put it up top of de bed, and den I got up on top of de chist, and den I tried to sleep, but de catfish was too owdacious; dey kept sich a jumpin' up all round de bed dat it was unpossible to sleep, and I jist lay dar an' prayed for de daylight and my fishin-pole. An' when I see de fust streak ob de broke ob day a glibberin troo de chinks I reached up to de rafters and took down my fishen-pole; den I cuts off a big piece of fat off'en the bacon side, Massa John, dat was hangin' up dar, an' I jist set on my ole chist an' caught dem sassy cats till sunrise—haw! haw! haw!"

Letters Without Words.

When M. de Persigny was French Minister of the Interior, he received a visit one day from a friend, who, on sending up his name, was shown in the great man's sanctum. A warm discussion arose between them. Suddenly an usher entered and handed the Minister a note. On opening it, he at once changed his tone of voice, and assumed a quiet and urbane manner. Puzzled as to the contents of the note, and by the marked effect it had suddenly produced upon the Minister, his friend cast a furtive glance at it, when, to his astonishment, he perceived that it was simply a plain sheet of paper, without a scratch upon it! More puzzled than ever, the gentleman, after a few minutes, took his leave, and proceeded to interrogate the usher, to whom he was well known, for he himself had been Minister of the Interior. "You have," said he, "just handed to the Minister a note, folded up, which had a most extraordinary effect upon him. Now, it was a plain sheet of paper, with nothing written upon it. What did it mean?" "Sir," replied the usher, "here is the explanation, which I must beg you to keep secret, for I do not wish to compromise myself. My master is very warm, and very liable to lose his temper. As he himself is aware of his weakness, he has ordered me, each time that his voice is raised sufficiently to be audible in the ante-room without delay to place a sheet of paper in an envelope and take it to him. That reminds him that his temper is getting the better of him, and he at once calms himself. Just now I heard his voice rising, and immediately carried out my instructions."

WHEREAS, DEFAULT HAS been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 1st day of April, 1870, executed by John D. Deyo, widower, of the Town of Shawangunk, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, to Jane Smith, then the wife of Gardinier Smith, of the Town of Hurley, in the County and State aforesaid, to secure the payment of thirty-seven hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the first day of April, 1872, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's office of said County of Ulster in Book No. 110 of mortgages, on page 285, &c., on the 21st day of March, 1872, at 2½ o'clock P. M.

And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs-at-law, her surviving.

And whereas the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, duly assigned and transferred all their right, title and interest in and to the said mortgage, and the bond accompanying the same to their father, Gardinier Smith, by assignment dated the 31st day of January, 1874, duly recorded in the said Ulster County Clerk's office.

And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of three thousand nine hundred and ninety-one dollars and sixteen cents, to-wit: $3,700 of principal and $291.16 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained and duly recorded as aforesaid and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at Public Auction at the front door of the Court House, in the City of Kingston, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, on the 20th day of May, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises are described in the mortgage as follows: All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Shawangunk aforesaid, and is known and distinguished as being the same farm now owned and occupied by John D. Deyo, and is described in three lots or parcels of land as follows, namely: Beginning with the lot the said John D. Deyo purchased from Willet Leuderman and his wife Sarah, and at a corner on the west side of the highway leading to Kingston, then as the needle pointed in 1820 north fifty degrees twenty minutes, west twenty-eight chains fourteen links to a corner of a lot of land sold to Joseph Eckert, then along the same south forty-two and three-quarter degrees west four chains seventy-one links, then north forty-five degrees forty-five minutes west seven chains to the center of a highway leading to Kutsonville; the two last courses are as the needle now points; then as it pointed in 1820 south twenty-nine degrees and forty-five minutes west seven chains and fifty links to a lot bought by Samuel Aldrich and others, then south fifty degrees twenty minutes east twenty-nine chains thirty links to a stone set by the westerly side of the aforesaid highway, then along the same to the beginning, containing thirty-six acres of land.

Also all that other lot purchased from Samuel Aldrich and others, and bounded as follows, namely: North by the above described lot, east by the public highway, south by lands of Peter Van Aken, west by the lands of Abram Vernooy, containing forty acres of land more or less.

Also all that other lot of land which is known as the same farm formerly owned by Jonathan Terwilliger, and is bounded as follows, namely: Beginning at a corner of land belonging to the heirs of William Rosekrans, from thence south seventy-five degrees and thirty minutes west two chains sixteen links to the line of the first described lot, then along the same north forty-seven degrees west ten chains thirty-one links, then north forty degrees and forty-five minutes east four chains and seventy-four links, then south thirty-two degrees forty-five minutes east eleven chains ninety-four links to the beginning, containing three acres and eight-tenths of an acre of land.

Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec. 12, 1869.

Gentlemen: My only object in giving you this estimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

C. H. TUCKER, Pas. Ag't Mich. C. R. R.
69 Washington street, Boston.

Every One Speaks Favorably,

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be sore at times, so that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your VEGETINE. After taking a few doses, I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor; and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. I have recommended it to several of my acquaintances; and every one speaks favorably of its good effect.

Yours truly P. S. SHERMAN.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, May 1, 1871.

DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have sold at retail, sixty-three dozen (756 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy, for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am personally cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, H. GILMAN,
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq. 468 Broadway.

FURTHER PROOF.

SPRINGFIELD, Me., May 4, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side, which was very painful. I saw VEGETINE advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle; her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what VEGETINE has done for my daughter, and I take every opportunity to recommend it to those who are not aware of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

Big Clark.

We lately mentioned in our foreign notes the death of Mr. Clark, of Melbourne and Tasmania, who was by far the wealthiest man in Australia, where the number of men would be regarded as rich from a London and New York standpoint is as yet very small. Mr. Clark emigrated to Tasmania very early in life, when that colony, which has now fallen into very decayed circumstances, was in a very prosperous plight, in consequence of the money circulated in maintaining the great convict depot there. Commencing as a butcher and cattle-dealer, he gradually bought up a great deal of land, and very soon after the discovery of gold in Victoria, recognized the expediency of making that colony his principal headquarters. In his capital work, Our Antipodes, the late Col. Mundy thus sketches him:

"Among the passengers my notice was particularly attracted to a tall, stout, Germanlike man, about fifty years of age, attired in a dirty drab Chesterfield, without waistcoat, gloves, or other expletives of dress, and who stood generally with hands in pockets, smoking his cigar and leaning against the funnel. When he did draw forth a great pair of freckled fists it was either to light another cigar, or to refer to a note-book. It was a note-book worth referring to! This was Mr. ——, well known as the great land-owner and land purchaser. Last year he purchased from the Government £28,000 worth of land in the Port Philip (Melbourne) District, which, at the minimum price of crown land, would give the same number of acres; and within his cabin door, whereat he keeps a sort of mastiff watch, although not a very apparent one, has a small portmonteau, in which, as he told me himself, he has at this moment £20,000, which he is carrying to Melbourne for another block of crown lands. In Van Dieman's Land (Tasmania) he has already 50,000 acres. This season he told me he had shared in New South Wales 90,000 and in Van Dieman's Land 40,000 sheep, and had sent to England 1,500 bales of wool, which at £20 a bale gives £30,000."

This was written twenty years ago, and Mr. Clark's operations have increased and multiplied at a great rate since then. A principal source of his enormous income was derived from making advances on their stock to needy "squatters." Fifteen per cent. was a very common price with him, and not unfrequently he exacted two more for "trouble"—what the Scotch dub "fash." Of course the squatters in a great number of cases were unable to pay, and all they had became his. He would then allow them to continue on the run, allowing them out of the proceeds just enough to live on. He is reckoned "a very tough customer." His personal expenses have been computed at some $5,000 a year. He did not entertain, and dined almost every day early off a cheap dish at the Criterion, a well-known hotel in Bourke street, Melbourne, close to that part of it which answers to Wall street in New York. Mr. Clark being thus economical himself, was by no means disposed to allow his sons to spend much of his money. On one occasion "the old man" went to Europe, and acting on the principle that young Mr. Clark set up a very spicy team of four horses. "Ah," said a spectator, "he'd better get done with that before the governor gets home," and indeed we believe that he was wise in time and did not drive down with this magnificent equipage to meet his parent on his return. It was universally considered that the bump for money-getting was never more finely developed than in Mr. Clark, but he never in the least distinguished himself in any other way.

The mice will play."

A Fish Story.

We have heard so many affecting incidents of the overflow that it is really refreshing to hear anything so ludicrous as the following: The little town of Perlington, on Pearl river, is pretty well overflowed. A branch of the Poltevent mills is situated there, and consequently the place is well peopled with negro laborers. "Old Uncle Billy," a venerable old darkey, with side whiskers, has a cabin built near the river bank, and was among the first inundated. He was accosted on the street, the next morning after the rise, by a gentleman, with:

"Well, Uncle Billy, I hear you were pretty well drowned out last night; how is it?"

"Well, you see, Massa John, de ribber 'gin to rise up to my doo' about 8 o'clock. I neber know'd my ole cabin was dat full of leaks 'fore, and de way dot ribber did rise on me was wusser dan de dead sea riz on old Faro. I 'clare for Moses, Massa John, I bleves dat ribber water was greased, for it crawled troo dem cracks slipperer than a possum tail.

"I didn't say nuffin till de ole cabin got kivered wid de overflow, and den I begin to bail her out. I bailed her and bailed till the mill bell struck twelve of de clock, and den I gined her up, and toted my old chist to de tudder side of the cabin and put it up top of de bed, and den I got up on top of de chist, and den I tried to sleep, but de catfish was too owdacious; dey kept sich a jumpin' up all round de bed dat it was unpossible to sleep, and I jist lay dar an' prayed for de daylight and my fishin-pole. An' when I see de fust streak ob de broke ob day a glibberin troo de chinks I reached up to de rafters and took down my fishen-pole; den I cuts off a big piece of fat off'en the bacon side, Massa John, dat was hangin' up dar, an' I jist set on my ole chist an' caught dem sassy cats till sunrise—haw! haw! haw!"

Letters Without Words.

When M. de Persigny was French Minister of the Interior, he received a visit one day from a friend, who, on sending up his name, was shown in the great man's sanctum. A warm discussion arose between them. Suddenly an usher entered and handed the Minister a note. On opening it, he at once changed his tone of voice, and assumed a quiet and urbane manner. Puzzled as to the contents of the note, and by the marked effect it had suddenly produced upon the Minister, his friend cast a furtive glance at it, when, to his astonishment, he perceived that it was simply a plain sheet of paper, without a scratch upon it! More puzzled than ever, the gentleman, after a few minutes, took his leave, and proceeded to interrogate the usher, to whom he was well known, for he himself had been Minister of the Interior. "You have," said he, "just handed to the Minister a note, folded up, which had a most extraordinary effect upon him. Now, it was a plain sheet of paper, with nothing written upon it. What did it mean?" "Sir," replied the usher, "here is the explanation, which I must beg you to keep secret, for I do not wish to compromise myself. My master is very warm, and very liable to lose his temper. As he himself is aware of his weakness, he has ordered me, each time that his voice is raised sufficiently to be audible in the ante-room without delay to place a sheet of paper in an envelope and take it to him. That reminds him that his temper is getting the better of him, and he at once calms himself. Just now I heard his voice rising, and immediately carried out my instructions."

"TELL IT ALL"

By Mrs. T. B. H. Stenhouse, for 25 years wife of a Mormon High Priest. With an introduction by HARRIET BEECHER STOWE. Two years ago the author wrote a pamphlet on Polygamy which excited the Mormon newspapers to sneeringly invite her to write a book and "Tell It All." Eminent men and women urged her to accept the challenge, and "Tell It All" is the result. It is the only book on this subject ever written by a real Mormon woman. 625 pp. superbly illustrated and bound. It outsells all other books three to one. The Daily Freeman

Kingston, Friday Morning, May 29.

The weather is getting warm. Keep away from the butcher shops and patronize the fruit and vegetable stalls. Don't nurse your appetite and when you don't want to eat don't eat. Give your stomach a chance to rest from grinding meat and supply with light diet and acid. Let whiskey alone and bow not down before Gambrinus. Keep your head cold and conscience in good repair and the sun shall not smite you by day nor the moon by night.

The Czar likes the little island whereon his daughter has married into a comfortable home, although he frets somewhat at the barbarous ways of the foreigners who inhabit it. At a banquet (we believe when royalty eats at table they call the affair a banquet) given him lately at Windsor Castle, the Queen, thinking his Ursine Majesty would enjoy a few musical notes, had the bag-pipes strike up a lively air. Would you credit it? the brute didn't know what to make of it—didn't recognize the sound of the slogan at all. The Czar was not in the Crimean war, or his ears had been better acquainted with the squeak that led the petticoated Highlanders to battle.

One of the reasons alleged for the assumption that the Grand Duke Nicholas is insane will be felt by frugal people to have the merit of novelty; that is his disposition to save up money against old age and the want which may possibly come with it. Unless it can be shown that Kings and Emperors and other royal people never get poor and old, the economical Duke must be concluded level-headed and sensible rather than crazy for desiring a good, fat bank account to offset the weakness and neglect of advanced life. And that crowned heads and blooded dukes do sometimes come to financial grief, we are all convinced by illustrations made both before and since we wept over the sorrows of that exiled Prince, Thaddeus of Warsaw.

We take pleasure in agreeing with the New York papers in their almost united opinion of the street stages there. In case a premium had been offered for the invention of the most cumbrous, disagreeable, inconvenient and altogether the meanest vehicle possible to this world, the man who perfected the city omnibus would have gained it without opposition. It is enough to throw a nervous man into a hysterical spasm to ride in one of them. The windows rattle and clatter like a thousand skeletons dancing Fisher's Hornpipe together on a cold January night. The wheels bang and thunder like a baby earthquake hunting for its cradle. The narrow seats against which the outraged passengers brace themselves are an insult to justice and suggest to hoary sinners the "anxious bench" of an old-fashioned revival meeting. The step which hangs out behind might be the door-stone of the New Jerusalem—it is so hard to get over. The roof might be the low ceiling of Tartarus—for no man can wear a silk hat under it with safety. Concretely considered, the New York stage is a device of the devil and we hope the strike may not end until the confounded bumping, thumping, rattling, pounding, limb-straining and dress-disorganizing old humbug is smashed forever from off the face of the earth which it disgraces and annoys.

Blood and Bullyism.

Brooks is a non-est man and Baxter and order reign together, subject to the constitution of the United States and that of Arkansas. No; we are wrong. Order does not reign at all, for all manner of crimes are breaking out over the state. The soft note of the pistol is heard in every bar-room and in every village and settlement. Murder is the popular pastime, while thieving and other lesser offences are sandwiched between the gory corpses which lie unavenged about. Had this happened while the belligerent governors were disputing for the curule chair of executive power, we should have looked upon it as the emphatic but good-natured expression of the public sympathy with one or the other of the contestants. But it does not appear from our Little Rock dispatches that the people abuse each other either in the interest of the present Baxter or the banished Brooks; they shoot, stab and steal merely for the fun of it. The truth is the spirit of lawlessness, always strong in Arkansas, has become irrepressible since it was so highly illustrated at the capital. It is not malicious nor partisan in any deep sense, but rampant, brutal and infernal on general principles and without a specific object. It is a relic of the barbarism of the war or rather of the institution which degraded the South and Southwest and finally produced the war. Law can do but little against it, yet what it can do should be speedily tested. If Baxter, now that he is without a rival for his office, has the pluck to reduce his dominions to decency and order, mankind will have reason to be thankful that he bears the rod. If not, the sooner some big dredging machine scoops up Arkansas and drops it, with all its bowie-knives, into the Gulf of Mexico, the better for those concerned.

Grace in the Pulpit.

We do not mean grace in the sense of divinely-inspired goodness, but grace of bodily motion and posture, and this is undoubtedly an advantage to an orator when he possesses it, as it is to a gymnast or a trapeze performer. Indeed a graceful body and a commanding, or at least attractive, presence is a pretty good stock in trade with which to set a public speaker up in business, even if he be not subject to any extraordinary pressure upon his cerebrum. When we remember this fact we wonder all the more at the marvellous oratorical triumphs won by exceedingly homely and clumsy men. But we set out to quote what a certain religious paper, which is launching out into criticism of late, says of the way in which its feelings have been lacerated:

"We are sometimes amused—that will be better than to say anything severe—at the posture of some preachers. They seem not to know what to do with their legs. These were, doubtless, made to stand on, to give the body a firm and commanding bearing, an impressive dignity. They stand on one leg and crook the other round it like a corkscrew, and keep up a perpetual twisting, as if they were winding themselves up. Then they shift and wind up the other side, and it seems all the time as if what they were saying was worked up below. Of course, such an unnatural and ungraceful posture as this detracts very much from the effect of their preaching, because it excites your sympathy or something else unpleasant; for they seem to be in pain all the time"

We are persuaded that nothing short of a firm conviction that church-going is a duty incumbent in every editor, would ever have carried that writer to the sacred precincts if he could have anticipated how the preacher would act with his legs. That it detracted from the effect of the sermon, we can readily believe. In one of Dickens' stories—"Great Expectations," we think—a provincial actor goes to London to win, if possible, metropolitan renown. He essays the glorious but hackneyed part of Hamlet at a minor theatre, under the instruction of a professional trainer of aspiring sons of Thespis. The trainer begins a rigid course of repressive and regulative medicine with the actor, in which is the following single prescription: Hamlet, in spite of all that could be said to him, would persist in twisting his legs and getting them in false and un-Shakespearean positions; this must be remedied, or the "highly intelligent" were sure to hiss him on the eventful night of his debut. So the man of resources placed a wafer—red, probably—upon each of Hamlet's knees, and required him to keep those wafers both visible from a conspicuous part of the house at the same time. This neat idea succeeded, and instead of perplexing himself and the actor with long-winded oral instructions, when his pupil got out of position the trainer shouted in his own forcible and elegant English, "I don't see no wafers." We dare not recommend the plan to be carried out in respect to ministers who cannot manage their legs, but if our reference to it should result in the decrease of the awkwardness of which the editor complains, we shall feel repaid for making a heavy draught on our memory on a hot afternoon.

Military Drill in Schools.

The row between the faculty and lower class students of Bowdoin College leads us to make the trite and truthful remark that nothing happens without a cause. And the main-spring of the present difficulty at Bowdoin in principle, is this: modern schools of all degrees attempt too much outside their regular line of duties. Within a few years the military element has been introduced, and to our mind it is not clear that to teach students a regular drill and to compel them to purchase and wear a heavy uniform in which to do it, has promoted their good in any essential respect. Military life and scholastic pursuits touch and harmonize at but very few points, if they do at any. If it be said that our citizens constitute the unorganized reserved corps of our armies and are liable to be called upon in time of war, our answer is that the military drill, if it does anything germane to its nature, cultivates the war spirit, and to cultivate that spirit increases proportionately the chances of war when the least occasion for it arises. We have schools especially adapted to make soldiers and in these there are no conflicting duties or feelings. With colleges and classic schools the case is different. As a mere exercise (and most institutions where the military drill, is part of the order of things claim but little more for it) the drill is a failure, inasmuch as it lacks an element indispensable to the idea of recreation—freedom and abandon. "Playing" at drill is much like "playing" at wood-sawing or stone-wall laying; it is so much like hard work that the most brilliant imagination would fail to distinguish between the two. Those schools which adopt the drill do it to get students by its force upon the untutored mind of the boys at home who, before they shoulder arms, think it the nicest thing in the world. We don't usually sympathize with college rebellion, but in the case of Bowdoin, we hope soon to hear of the total abolition of the senseless and useless military drill of which the boys complain.

CURRENT TOPICS.

—Brooks has taken flight. He was afraid of that treason indictment.

—It's just like Butler. When he is sick he has to have a disease different from anybody else. He is troubled with "ural colic."

—The Hartford Courant says "pronounced individuality" is what ails Grant. In other words Sphinxiana.

—It is proposed as the easiest way of getting rid of the District of Columbia difficulties that Congress abolish the District.

—Brooklyn could hardly have presented a prettier spectacle than her 60,000 Sunday School children.

—The Albany Express says Alvord will be the Liberal-Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

—Richardson says he'll continue to hang on. Of course; that's all such kind of men know how to do.

—Prof. Swing's church isn't large enough, and the congregation have sold bonds to the amount of $200,000 to build a new and larger one. How are you, Patton?

—It is reported that the Hohenzollern candidature for the Spanish throne is to be revived. Will we then have another French-German unpleasantness?

—Kate Field has found fresh fields and pastures green by going on the stage. She made her debut at Boston the other night with great success.

—What is this world coming to? The New York Corporation Counsel thinks that city's Aldermen ought to have the same pay as Congressmen.

—Caleb Cushing is said to be in trouble with the Dons already. He ought to have posted himself on etiquette before he attempted to dine out in that frisky land.

—Are the Secretary of the Treasury and his subordinates lost to all decency? They are lobbying against the censuring resolutions with a persistency rarely equalled.

—Emigration is swelling again. We pay more wages over here than any country in the world, and no wonder Ireland's and Germany's hardy boys and healthy girls come over. Well, there's room enough.

—Vice-President Wilson denies that he has expressed any dissatisfaction with the administration, and hasn't asked the President to remove Richardson. Well, he ought to have done so if he hasn't.

—The dismissal of Miss Dawes from the Treasury Department by Sawyer because she was supposed to be a relative of Henry L. Dawes, is the most contemptible act that reptile has been guilty of so far.

—There is to be a vigorous canvass for the Prohibition ticket, unless the Albany Express is mistaken. The candidates will be ex-Gov. Clark and Mr. Farrington of Dutchess. This is the most favorable indication yet given for the election of a Democratic ticket.

—Bourbonism continues to spread among the Democrats. The St. Louis Times is strongly of the opinion that if Democrats have offices to fill there are plenty of Democrats to fill them. There does always appear to be Democratic aspirants enough when offices are mentioned.

—McHenry, the English railroader, thinks the Wisconsin law a necessity of the times, and that American railroads ought to fix their rates at a moderate figure so as to give transporters confidence in their permanency. Sensible McHenry.

—The associated press agent at Girard, Ill., very properly started out a dispatch about the general conference of Dunkards now in session at that place. By some whimsical accident, a single superfluous letter managed to smuggle itself in, and half the papers libeled a very inoffensive, temperate and hospitable sect of religionists by called them Drunkards, with a capital D. The Boston Journal gravely headed the item: "A Novel Organization—National Conference of Drunkards!"

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—Professor Bunsen, the chemist of Heidelberg, Germany, recently went out walking, leaving the manuscript of a new book he has been four years preparing lying on the desk, and when he returned he found it burned up, having taken fire from some lucifer matches ignited by the sun.

—At Seymour, Indiana, two men named Bletwood, brothers, were convicted of the murder of a little German boy a year ago and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The evidence showed that they enticed the child into a secluded spot and beat out his brains with a club, cut his throat and threw the body into the creek. The object of the murder was the robbing of the child of $2.

—In the course of experiments with manufactured ice in Philadelphia the other day, a curious and beautiful result was produced by enclosing a bouquet of fresh flowers in the centre of a block of the translucent material. Every leaf and blossom was perfectly visible, while the brilliancy of the colors was enhanced by the refraction through the ice.

REGULAR DISPATCHES TO DAILY FREEMAN

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.

The Spanish Crown Goes Begging.

PARIS, May 28.—The Journal des Debates and the Journal de Paris say that the Spanish crown was first offered to the Duke de Montpensier, who refused it. Negotiations looking to the candidacy of the German Prince then began.

AUSTRIA.

Condition of the Pope.

VIENNA, May 28.—The New Free Press is advised that the condition of the Pope is very precarious. Much excitement exists at the Vatican and serious results to his Holiness are apprehended.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Spanish News.

LONDON, May 29—5:30 A. M.—A dispatch to the Standard says Gen. Concha has seized the heights near Artaban and the roads leading from Biscay via Villa Real and Gumboa. The army of Don Carlos has consequently abandoned Durango and retired into Guipuzcoa.

It is reported that the Carlists have received twenty Krupp steel cannon, and are reorganizing their forces.

A Paris dispatch to the Times says the story of the German candidature for the Spanish throne is ridiculous.

CUBA.

Preparations for a Military Campaign.

HAVANA, May 28.—The Vose de Cuba says plans for active military operations have been arranged by Gen. Concha and will be put into immediate execution, all needed material and resources necessary for a regular campaign being provided. Gen. Concha was obliged almost to create these resources himself. The Vose says these combinations will impart great activity to the prosecution of the war.

Smuggling.

The journals of to-day discuss the scandalous increase of contraband goods introduced into the island concealed in barrels of flour. The Vose de Cuba says a matter so grave deserves immediate investigation by the Intendente, without waiting orders from Spain. All foreign flour comes from the United States, and this contraband game has been carried on on a larger scale for many years. Many reputable merchants express the opinion that Gen. Concha will be able to suppress smuggling, providing he treats all concerned in the business with impartial severity instead of laxity, as heretofore.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Coming Into the Fold.

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—In the Presbyterian General Assembly to-day overtures were received from the Old School Synod of Missouri for re-union with the body now in session, and conveying fraternal greeting. A resolution was offered welcoming the delegation and conveying overtures, hailing with joy the proposition as exhibiting the principles of the Presbyterian Church, and considering all action of the church in the past, if any, which may have been done contrary to these principles, null and void. The preamble and resolutions were adopted unanimously amid long-continued applause. A committee was appointed conveying fraternal greeting to the next session of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, South.

In the Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly, now in session here, the question of union with the Presbyterian Church is also being agitated.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

"Sunset's" Lecture for the Mississippi Sufferers.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Hon. S. S. Cox lectured this evening in Steinway Hall on "American Humor." The proceeds of the lecture, which amounted to over $2,000, were devoted to the benefit of sufferers by the Mississippi flood.

Trotting.

There were two trots at Fleetwood Park today. In the first, for $8,000 for 2:29 horses, nine started. McDonald's George H. Mitchell won easily in three straight heats. Time 2:32½, 2:31¼, 2:33. In the second race, for 2:29 horses for a purse of $1,000, eight started. W. C. Trimble's Music won in three straight heats. Time 2:31¼, 2:29, 2:29½.

AGREEABLE NEIGHBORS.

A Southern Way of Settling Difficulties.

MEMPHIS, May 28.—At Grider's Landing, just below Cat Island, while the steamer Phil Allen was lying there to-day Henry Burgett and another planter named Grider exchanged some eight or ten shots with guns. Burgett, after having received five shots, was finally shot through the body in the region of the heart and died soon afterwards. He is the fourth brother who has been killed in combats with neighbors.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Richardson's Successor.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The rumor that Bristow of Kentucky will be successor to Richardson as Secretary of the Treasury is to-night strengthened in official and Congressional circles. It is said the President has formally tendered the position to Bristow and is waiting for his response. Richardson's only reply to numerous inquiries is that he will resign at his own convenience.

FIRE.

Loss $100,000.

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—The machine shops of the St. Louis & Southeastern Railroad at Mount Vernon were totally burned last night, with three locomotives and two passenger coaches. Loss $100,000; uninsured.

THE PITTSBURG CRUSADERS.

A Victory for the Ladies.

PITTSBURG, May 28.—In the case of the crusaders arrested last week in the Court of Common Pleas this morning Judge Stowe gave decisions reversing the judgment of the acting Mayor, and ordered the fines to be refunded. The ladies are jubilant over their victory and are to hold a meeting to decide upon a future plan of action.

ROCHEFORT.

His Story of the Escape from New Caledonia.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Rochefort arrived from California to-day and departed soon after for New York. In an interview published in the Post, Rochefort gives a fearful picture of the life of prisoners confined in New Caledonia, particularly those sentenced for crime. The condition of political prisoners was more tolerable. They were not obliged to labor, and those who had money were allowed to purchase such comforts as were obtainable.—Rochefort and several companions were permitted to build a small house, which added much to their comfort. Of his escape and that of his companions he would only say that they engaged an English bark of 400 tons burden to sail around the coast, and that they swam to the vessel, being in the water from 8 P. M. until after midnight before they were picked up, in nearly an exhausted condition.

LOUISIANA.

Condition of the Levees.

NEW ORLEANS, May 28.—Chief State Engineer Thompson writes to Gov. Kellogg that 3,000,000 cubic yards of levee are required to be built to save the state from an overflow next year, and that Louisiana cannot pay for the construction of more than one-third. He suggests an appeal be made for national aid.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Liberal Appropriation.

BOSTON, May 28.—The special committee of the Legislature on the Mill River valley disaster have reported in the House a bill providing for the payment of $120,000 to aid in the reconstruction of highways destroyed by the flood.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Terms of Sentence of the Corrupt Commissioners.

CHARLESTON, May 28.—The three County Commissioners of Barnwell county, convicted of corruption, have been sentenced respectively to ten and nine years and thirteen months in the penitentiary.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 28.

Mr. FLANNAGAN said he was a new convert to the cause of woman suffrage, and was made a convert by the glorious efforts of the women's crusade against intemperance. Women, and women only, through Almighty God, could save this country from the worst of all evils—intemperance. Women could control our countrymen, if they were more directly interested, in all questions of morality better than men, and from this time henceforth he intended to be a "woman's man." (Laughter).

Mr. STEWART said ten years from now there would not be a man in the Senate opposed to female suffrage.

Mr. MERRIMON asked why not try the experiment in the District of Columbia.

Mr. SARGENT—We will when we get a chance.

Mr. CONKLING said the amendment was in order to this very bill to enforce woman suffrage in the District of Columbia, and if his friend Stewart desired to try an experiment in new territory, why not try it as an experiment here.

Mr. CARPENTER said he would vote for an amendment to confer suffrage, in the new territory, on women. He believed that in every condition of life the society of women was beneficial. In every place where she was found everything was neat and orderly. If our wives, mothers and daughters go to election places there will be decency, order and peace there. In the city of New York, for instance, he would rely more upon women voting to bring about peace and order than all the army or navy could do. He would vote to establish woman suffrage here, in Winconsin or in any other place he could to-morrow.

Mr. FERRY of Michigan favored the amendment and said he would vote for it.

Mr. ANTHONY said he had no doubt female suffrage would come in time. He did not believe that suffrage was a woman's right or man's right. It was not a national right, but a political right, regulated by the body politic.

Mr. MORTON argued that women had the same natural rights as men had.

After further discussion Mr. EDMUNDS moved to lay the bill on the table. Lost by a tie vote—24 to 24.

The question then being on Sargent's amendment, Bayard said it seemed hardly possible the Senate of the United States proposed such change in the very fundamental principle of government; that such change as this should be blocked out as an experiment, in utter disregard of the decree by which men and women were created, could hardly be believed. The sexes were different physically and mentally, yet here was this poor, puny attempt in disregard of every experience, enlightened as it had been by Divine interposition. Such legislation as this was irreverent and in defiance of the laws of God Himself. It would give two heads to a family, and there would no longer be that unity, that subordination required by Christian marriage.

Mr. MORRILL of Maine opposed the amendment and denied that the right of suffrage was a natural one.

The amendment of Sargent was then rejected, as follows—yeas 19, nays 27. Dorsey, Spencer and Logan, who would have voted for the bill, were paired with Bogy, Johnston and Morrill of Maine, who would have voted against it.

The question then being on the final passage of the bill, it was rejected—yeas 19, nays 29.

Mr. MORTON, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, reported back the resolution of the Senate of March 10th, 1873, instructing the committee to examine and report upon the best and most practicable mode of electing President and Vice President, and providing a tribunal to adjust and decide all contested questions connected therewith, with a lengthy written report, which was ordered printed and placed on the calendar.

On motion of MORRILL of Maine the Senate took up the bill making an appropriation for the support of the military academy, that it might be unfinished business to-morrow, and then at 4:50 o'clock the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

THE REDUCTION OF THE ARMY.

Mr. COBURN estimated the saving to the government which the passage of the bill would effect at about $7,000,000.

Mr. BUTLER of Massachusetts gave notice of an amendment which he intended to offer that the headquarters of the army shall never be removed from the capital of the nation except in time of war.

After some further discussion the previous question was seconded and the bill went over until to-morrow.

The House at 4:30 o'clock took a recess until 7:30 the evening session to be for the consideration of the bill to amend the tariff.

The House met at 7:30 and went into Committee of the Whole, Tyner of Indiana in the chair, on the bill to amend the tariff and internal revenue laws. The proceedings opened with discussion on jute butts, based on the proposition by Kasson to make the duty on that article $6 per ton and to admit free of duty for two years machinery adapted to the manufacture of the fibre. The debate lasted more than an hour, and was participated in by Sailor, Wilson of Iowa, Butler of Massachusetts, Kelley, Hawley of Connecticut, Monroe, Dawes of Massachusetts, Luttrell, Page and Hereford.

Finally an amendment by Eames that machinery to be admitted free of duty should not be such as is manufactured in the United States was adopted as thus amended. Mr. Kasson's proposition was agreed to.

Mr. Myer's amendment of last night in regard to moisic iron, making the duty on it the same as on other iron of like conditions, grade and stage of manufacture, was adopted.

Mr. VANCE moved to put on the free list salt in bulk or packages, and made a speech in favor of the motion. On a vote by tellers there was a majority in favor of Vance's amendment, but there was no quorum and an attempt at compromise as to the vote in the House having failed, the committee and House at 10 o'clock adjourned.

Briggs.

Consumption is a disease so common that a description is scarcely necessary, yet the causes are varied. Consumption is not contagious nor hereditary, but the general constitutions may follow one generation after another, and be from their physical organization more easily affected by this disease; but the chief are in neglecting the laws of nature, too much confinement in an unhealthy atmosphere, sudden colds, catarrh, great and continued exposures, impoverishing of the system by other diseases; in fact there are almost as many cases as there are victims; and one of the most fatal is that of young ladies who expose their health and endanger their lives in the most reckless manner when attending balls, parties, operas and other places of amusement, which result in Consumption and an early grave. It chiefly attacks the young, the fair and the amiable, and is considered incurable. In certain northern latitudes it prevails with the greatest violence, owing, probably, to the frequent atmospherical changes from heat to cold, dryness to dampness, &c. The general symptoms of this disease are an habitual cough, morbid expectoration, pains in the breast, casual finish or feverish heat in the hands, feet and shanks, change of voice, thin fingers and nose, bent or crooked nails, falling of the hair, &c. This disease has been divided into three, four, and even five stages by medical writers; but, for practical purposes, three stages will be found best adapted to the course of the disease. To entirely cure this cough and eradicate all the early symptoms of this fatal malady, DR. J. BRIGGS' THROAT AND LUNG HEALER is thoroughly adequate and sure.

Briggs.

LAWS OF NEW YORK.—By Authority.

[Every law, unless a different time shall be prescribed therein, shall commence and take effect throughout the State, on and not before the twentieth day after the day of its final passage, as certified by the Secretary of State. Sec. 12, title 4, chap. 7, part 1, Revised Statutes.]

CHAP. 410.

AN ACT to authorize towns and villages to provide a sinking fund for the payment of their bonded indebtedness.

PASSED May 11, 1874; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any town or incorporated village in the State of New York, having issued its bonds, or that may hereafter issue its bonds, under the provisions of law, and said bonds being a valid debt of said town or village to mature or become due in a specified period of time, may by a vote of a majority of the electors present and voting at any annual town meeting or charter election of said village, raise by tax levied upon the taxable property of said town or village, such sum as may be specified by said vote in the manner hereinafter provided, for the purpose of buying and cancelling said bonds, or the purpose of providing a sinking fund for the ultimate payment of said bonds.

§ 2. The town board consisting of the supervisor, town clerk and justice of the peace in towns, or the village trustee in villages, shall meet at least twenty days before the annual town meeting or the annual village election, and shall determine by a majority of said board what amount shall be annually raised for the purpose as described in section one of this act, and the form of the ballot and the manner of voting, and shall give notice of such voting by posting at least five notices in public places in said town or village setting forth the time of such voting, the amount to be raised and the purpose for which the same is raised, and the result of such vote shall be operative until the same shall be changed by a vote of said electors taken in a similar manner at a subsequent election.

§ 3. The money so raised shall be used to buy and cancel the said bonds provided the same can be purchased at their par value, or in case said bonds cannot be so purchased, said money shall be paid over to the county treasurer of the county, who shall loan the same at seven per cent. per annum interest, secured by mortgage on unincumbered real estate for a period of time equal to the time said bonds have to run, or invest the same in bonds of the State of New York or of the United States, and at the maturity of said town or village bonds, said money shall be applied to the payment of said bonds, and the supervisor of such town or president of the trustees of said village shall be charged with the duty of receiving said money from said county treasurer, giving security for the same in double the amount received; and of purchasing or paying said bonds, and of cancelling the same in the presence of the said town board or village trustees as the case may be.

STATE OF NEW YORK, Office of the Secretary of State, } ss.:

I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole of said original law.

As we march, march, march to Secore's Hat Store.

His fine Hats for men and boys
Are found to be the best
That Kingston city can produce,
Or any of the rest,
For Secore is our Hatter,
His hats are all the go;
While their qualities are perfection,
And his prices are so low.
Come along boys, etc.

Then rouse up all you gay young men,
Who in style would be,
Don't go and be imposed upon
By every store you see;
But go direct to Secore's
And satisfy yourself,
That all the Hats are stylish
He takes from off his shelf.

The Daily Freeman

Kingston, Friday Morning, May 29.

The weather is getting warm. Keep away from the butcher shops and patronize the fruit and vegetable stalls. Don't nurse your appetite and when you don't want to eat don't eat. Give your stomach a chance to rest from grinding meat and supply with light diet and acid. Let whiskey alone and bow not down before Gambrinus. Keep your head cold and conscience in good repair and the sun shall not smite you by day nor the moon by night.

The Czar likes the little island whereon his daughter has married into a comfortable home, although he frets somewhat at the barbarous ways of the foreigners who inhabit it. At a banquet (we believe when royalty eats at table they call the affair a banquet) given him lately at Windsor Castle, the Queen, thinking his Ursine Majesty would enjoy a few musical notes, had the bag-pipes strike up a lively air. Would you credit it? the brute didn't know what to make of it—didn't recognize the sound of the slogan at all. The Czar was not in the Crimean war, or his ears had been better acquainted with the squeak that led the petticoated Highlanders to battle.

One of the reasons alleged for the assumption that the Grand Duke Nicholas is insane will be felt by frugal people to have the merit of novelty; that is his disposition to save up money against old age and the want which may possibly come with it. Unless it can be shown that Kings and Emperors and other royal people never get poor and old, the economical Duke must be concluded level-headed and sensible rather than crazy for desiring a good, fat bank account to offset the weakness and neglect of advanced life. And that crowned heads and blooded dukes do sometimes come to financial grief, we are all convinced by illustrations made both before and since we wept over the sorrows of that exiled Prince, Thaddeus of Warsaw.

We take pleasure in agreeing with the New York papers in their almost united opinion of the street stages there. In case a premium had been offered for the invention of the most cumbrous, disagreeable, inconvenient and altogether the meanest vehicle possible to this world, the man who perfected the city omnibus would have gained it without opposition. It is enough to throw a nervous man into a hysterical spasm to ride in one of them. The windows rattle and clatter like a thousand skeletons dancing Fisher's Hornpipe together on a cold January night. The wheels bang and thunder like a baby earthquake hunting for its cradle. The narrow seats against which the outraged passengers brace themselves are an insult to justice and suggest to hoary sinners the "anxious bench" of an old-fashioned revival meeting. The step which hangs out behind might be the door-stone of the New Jerusalem—it is so hard to get over. The roof might be the low ceiling of Tartarus—for no man can wear a silk hat under it with safety. Concretely considered, the New York stage is a device of the devil and we hope the strike may not end until the confounded bumping, thumping, rattling, pounding, limb-straining and dress-disorganizing old humbug is smashed forever from off the face of the earth which it disgraces and annoys.

Blood and Bullyism.

Brooks is a non-est man and Baxter and order reign together, subject to the constitution of the United States and that of Arkansas. No; we are wrong. Order does not reign at all, for all manner of crimes are breaking out over the state. The soft note of the pistol is heard in every bar-room and in every village and settlement. Murder is the popular pastime, while thieving and other lesser offences are sandwiched between the gory corpses which lie unavenged about. Had this happened while the belligerent governors were disputing for the curule chair of executive power, we should have looked upon it as the emphatic but good-natured expression of the public sympathy with one or the other of the contestants. But it does not appear from our Little Rock dispatches that the people abuse each other either in the interest of the present Baxter or the banished Brooks; they shoot, stab and steal merely for the fun of it. The truth is the spirit of lawlessness, always strong in Arkansas, has become irrepressible since it was so highly illustrated at the capital. It is not malicious nor partisan in any deep sense, but rampant, brutal and infernal on general principles and without a specific object. It is a relic of the barbarism of the war or rather of the institution which degraded the South and Southwest and finally produced the war. Law can do but little against it, yet what it can do should be speedily tested. If Baxter, now that he is without a rival for his office, has the pluck to reduce his dominions to decency and order, mankind will have reason to be thankful that he bears the rod. If not, the sooner some big dredging machine scoops up Arkansas and drops it, with all its bowie-knives, into the Gulf of Mexico, the better for those concerned.

Grace in the Pulpit.

We do not mean grace in the sense of divinely-inspired goodness, but grace of bodily motion and posture, and this is undoubtedly an advantage to an orator when he possesses it, as it is to a gymnast or a trapeze performer. Indeed a graceful body and a commanding, or at least attractive, presence is a pretty good stock in trade with which to set a public speaker up in business, even if he be not subject to any extraordinary pressure upon his cerebrum. When we remember this fact we wonder all the more at the marvellous oratorical triumphs won by exceedingly homely and clumsy men. But we set out to quote what a certain religious paper, which is launching out into criticism of late, says of the way in which its feelings have been lacerated:

"We are sometimes amused—that will be better than to say anything severe—at the posture of some preachers. They seem not to know what to do with their legs. These were, doubtless, made to stand on, to give the body a firm and commanding bearing, an impressive dignity. They stand on one leg and crook the other round it like a corkscrew, and keep up a perpetual twisting, as if they were winding themselves up. Then they shift and wind up the other side, and it seems all the time as if what they were saying was worked up below. Of course, such an unnatural and ungraceful posture as this detracts very much from the effect of their preaching, because it excites your sympathy or something else unpleasant; for they seem to be in pain all the time"

We are persuaded that nothing short of a firm conviction that church-going is a duty incumbent in every editor, would ever have carried that writer to the sacred precincts if he could have anticipated how the preacher would act with his legs. That it detracted from the effect of the sermon, we can readily believe. In one of Dickens' stories—"Great Expectations," we think—a provincial actor goes to London to win, if possible, metropolitan renown. He essays the glorious but hackneyed part of Hamlet at a minor theatre, under the instruction of a professional trainer of aspiring sons of Thespis. The trainer begins a rigid course of repressive and regulative medicine with the actor, in which is the following single prescription: Hamlet, in spite of all that could be said to him, would persist in twisting his legs and getting them in false and un-Shakespearean positions; this must be remedied, or the "highly intelligent" were sure to hiss him on the eventful night of his debut. So the man of resources placed a wafer—red, probably—upon each of Hamlet's knees, and required him to keep those wafers both visible from a conspicuous part of the house at the same time. This neat idea succeeded, and instead of perplexing himself and the actor with long-winded oral instructions, when his pupil got out of position the trainer shouted in his own forcible and elegant English, "I don't see no wafers." We dare not recommend the plan to be carried out in respect to ministers who cannot manage their legs, but if our reference to it should result in the decrease of the awkwardness of which the editor complains, we shall feel repaid for making a heavy draught on our memory on a hot afternoon.

Military Drill in Schools.

The row between the faculty and lower class students of Bowdoin College leads us to make the trite and truthful remark that nothing happens without a cause. And the mainspring of the present difficulty at Bowdoin in principle, is this: modern schools of all degrees attempt too much outside their regular line of duties. Within a few years the military element has been introduced, and to our mind it is not clear that to teach students a regular drill and to compel them to purchase and wear a heavy uniform in which to do it, has promoted their good in any essential respect. Military life and scholastic pursuits touch and harmonize at but very few points, if they do at any. If it be said that our citizens constitute the unorganized reserved corps of our armies and are liable to be called upon in time of war, our answer is that the military drill, if it does anything germane to its nature, cultivates the war spirit, and to cultivate that spirit increases proportionately the chances of war when the least occasion for it arises. We have schools especially adapted to make soldiers and in these there are no conflicting duties or feelings. With colleges and classic schools the case is different. As a mere exercise (and most institutions where the military drill, is part of the order of things claim but little more for it) the drill is a failure, inasmuch as it lacks an element indispensable to the idea of recreation—freedom and abandon. "Playing" at drill is much like "playing" at wood-sawing or stone-wall laying; it is so much like hard work that the most brilliant imagination would fail to distinguish between the two. Those schools which adopt the drill do it to get students by its force upon the untutored mind of the boys at home who, before they shoulder arms, think it the nicest thing in the world. We don't usually sympathize with college rebellion, but in the case of Bowdoin, we hope soon to hear of the total abolition of the senseless and useless military drill of which the boys complain.

—Brooks has taken flight. He was afraid of that treason indictment.

—It's just like Butler. When he is sick he has to have a disease different from anybody else. He is troubled with "ural colic."

—The Hartford Courant says "pronounced individuality" is what ails Grant. In other words Sphinxiana.

—It is proposed as the easiest way of getting rid of the District of Columbia difficulties that Congress abolish the District.

—Brooklyn could hardly have presented a prettier spectacle than her 60,000 Sunday School children.

—The Albany Express says Alvord will be the Liberal-Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

—Richardson says he'll continue to hang on. Of course; that's all such kind of men know how to do.

—Prof. Swing's church isn't large enough, and the congregation have sold bonds to the amount of $200,000 to build a new and larger one. How are you, Patton?

—It is reported that the Hohenzollern candidature for the Spanish throne is to be revived. Will we then have another French-German unpleasantness?

—Kate Field has found fresh fields and pastures green by going on the stage. She made her debut at Boston the other night with great success.

—What is this world coming to? The New York Corporation Counsel thinks that city's Aldermen ought to have the same pay as Congressmen.

—Caleb Cushing is said to be in trouble with the Dons already. He ought to have posted himself on etiquette before he attempted to dine out in that frisky land.

—Are the Secretary of the Treasury and his subordinates lost to all decency? They are lobbying against the censuring resolutions with a persistency rarely equalled.

—Emigration is swelling again. We pay more wages over here than any country in the world, and no wonder Ireland's and Germany's hardy boys and healthy girls come over. Well, there's room enough.

—Vice-President Wilson denies that he has expressed any dissatisfaction with the administration, and hasn't asked the President to remove Richardson. Well, he ought to have done so if he hasn't.

—The dismissal of Miss Dawes from the Treasury Department by Sawyer because she was supposed to be a relative of Henry L. Dawes, is the most contemptible act that reptile has been guilty of so far.

—There is to be a vigorous canvass for the Prohibition ticket, unless the Albany Express is mistaken. The candidates will be ex-Gov. Clark and Mr. Farrington of Dutchess. This is the most favorable indication yet given for the election of a Democratic ticket.

—Bourbonism continues to spread among the Democrats. The St. Louis Times is strongly of the opinion that if Democrats have offices to fill there are plenty of Democrats to fill them. There does always appear to be Democratic aspirants enough when offices are mentioned.

—McHenry, the English railroader, thinks the Wisconsin law a necessity of the times, and that American railroads ought to fix their rates at a moderate figure so as to give transporters confidence in their permanency. Sensible McHenry.

—The associated press agent at Girard, Ill., very properly started out a dispatch about the general conference of Dunkards now in session at that place. By some whimsical accident, a single superfluous letter managed to smuggle itself in, and half the papers libeled a very inoffensive, temperate and hospitable sect of religionists by called them Drunkards, with a capital D. The Boston Journal gravely headed the item: "A Novel Organization—National Conference of Drunkards!"

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—Professor Bunsen, the chemist of Heidelberg, Germany, recently went out walking, leaving the manuscript of a new book he has been four years preparing lying on the desk, and when he returned he found it burned up, having taken fire from some lucifer matches ignited by the sun.

—At Seymour, Indiana, two men named Bletwood, brothers, were convicted of the murder of a little German boy a year ago and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The evidence showed that they enticed the child into a secluded spot and beat out his brains with a club, cut his throat and threw the body into the creek. The object of the murder was the robbing of the child of $2.

—In the course of experiments with manufactured ice in Philadelphia the other day, a curious and beautiful result was produced by enclosing a bouquet of fresh flowers in the centre of a block of the translucent material. Every leaf and blossom was perfectly visible, while the brilliancy of the colors was enhanced by the refraction through the ice.

FRANCE.

The Spanish Crown Goes Begging.

PARIS, May 28.—The Journal des Debates and the Journal de Paris say that the Spanish crown was first offered to the Duke de Montpensier, who refused it. Negotiations looking to the candidacy of the German Prince then began.

AUSTRIA.

Condition of the Pope.

VIENNA, May 28.—The New Free Press is advised that the condition of the Pope is very precarious. Much excitement exists at the Vatican and serious results to his Holiness are apprehended.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Spanish News.

LONDON, May 29—5:30 A. M.—A dispatch to the Standard says Gen. Concha has seized the heights near Artaban and the roads leading from Biscay via Villa Real and Gumboa. The army of Don Carlos has consequently abandoned Durango and retired into Guipuzcoa.

It is reported that the Carlists have received twenty Krupp steel cannon, and are reorganizing their forces.

A Paris dispatch to the Times says the story of the German candidature for the Spanish throne is ridiculous.

CUBA.

Preparations for a Military Campaign.

HAVANA, May 28.—The Vose de Cuba says plans for active military operations have been arranged by Gen. Concha and will be put into immediate execution, all needed material and resources necessary for a regular campaign being provided. Gen. Concha was obliged almost to create these resources himself. The Vose says these combinations will impart great activity to the prosecution of the war.

Smuggling.

The journals of to-day discuss the scandalous increase of contraband goods introduced into the island concealed in barrels of flour. The Vose de Cuba says a matter so grave deserves immediate investigation by the Intendente, without waiting orders from Spain. All foreign flour comes from the United States, and this contraband game has been carried on on a larger scale for many years. Many reputable merchants express the opinion that Gen. Concha will be able to suppress smuggling, providing he treats all concerned in the business with impartial severity instead of laxity, as heretofore.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Coming Into the Fold.

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—In the Presbyterian General Assembly to-day overtures were received from the Old School Synod of Missouri for re-union with the body now in session, and conveying fraternal greeting. A resolution was offered welcoming the delegation and conveying overtures, hailing with joy the proposition as exhibiting the principles of the Presbyterian Church, and considering all action of the church in the past, if any, which may have been done contrary to these principles, null and void. The preamble and resolutions were adopted unanimously amid long-continued applause. A committee was appointed conveying fraternal greeting to the next session of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, South.

In the Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly, now in session here, the question of union with the Presbyterian Church is also being agitated.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

"Sunset's" Lecture for the Mississippi Sufferers.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Hon. S. S. Cox lectured this evening in Steinway Hall on "American Humor." The proceeds of the lecture, which amounted to over $2,000, were devoted to the benefit of sufferers by the Mississippi flood.

Trotting.

There were two trots at Fleetwood Park to-day. In the first, for $8,000 for 2:29 horses, nine started. McDonald's George H. Mitchell won easily in three straight heats. Time 2:32½, 2:31¼, 2:33. In the second race, for 2:29 horses for a purse of $1,000, eight started. W. C. Trimble's Music won in three straight heats. Time 2:31¼, 2:29, 2:29¼.

AGREEABLE NEIGHBORS.

A Southern Way of Settling Difficulties.

MEMPHIS, May 28.—At Grider's Landing, just below Cat Island, while the steamer Phil Allen was lying there to-day Henry Burgett and another planter named Grider exchanged some eight or ten shots with guns. Burgett, after having received five shots, was finally shot through the body in the region of the heart and died soon afterwards. He is the fourth brother who has been killed in combats with neighbors.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Richardson's Successor.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The rumor that Bristow of Kentucky will be successor to Richardson as Secretary of the Treasury is to-night strengthened in official and Congressional circles. It is said the President has formally tendered the position to Bristow and is waiting for his response. Richardson's only reply to numerous inquiries is that he will resign at his own convenience.

FIRE.

Loss $100,000.

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—The machine shops of the St. Louis & Southeastern Railroad at Mount Vernon were totally burned last night, with three locomotives and two passenger coaches. Loss $100,000; uninsured.

THE PITTSBURG CRUSADERS.

A Victory for the Ladies.

PITTSBURG, May 28.—In the case of the crusaders arrested last week in the Court of Common Pleas this morning Judge Stowe gave decisions reversing the judgment of the acting Mayor, and ordered the fines to be refunded. The ladies are jubilant over their victory and are to hold a meeting to decide upon a future plan of action.

ROCHEFORT.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Rochefort arrived from California to-day and departed soon after for New York. In an interview published in the Post, Rochefort gives a fearful picture of the life of prisoners confined in New Caledonia, particularly those sentenced for crime. The condition of political prisoners was more tolerable. They were not obliged to labor, and those who had money were allowed to purchase such comforts as were obtainable.—Rochefort and several companions were permitted to build a small house, which added much to their comfort. Of his escape and that of his companions he would only say that they engaged an English bark of 400 tons burden to sail around the coast, and that they swam to the vessel, being in the water from 8 P. M. until after midnight before they were picked up, in nearly an exhausted condition.

LOUISIANA.

Condition of the Levees.

NEW ORLEANS, May 28.—Chief State Engineer Thompson writes to Gov. Kellogg that 3,000,000 cubic yards of levee are required to be built to save the state from an overflow next year, and that Louisiana cannot pay for the construction of more than one-third. He suggests an appeal be made for national aid.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Liberal Appropriation.

BOSTON, May 28.—The special committee of the Legislature on the Mill River valley disaster have reported in the House a bill providing for the payment of $120,000 to aid in the reconstruction of highways destroyed by the flood.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Terms of Sentence of the Corrupt Commissioners.

CHARLESTON, May 28.—The three County Commissioners of Barnwell county, convicted of corruption, have been sentenced respectively to ten and nine years and thirteen months in the penitentiary.

THE WEATHER.

To-Day's Probabilities.

For the Middle States clear and warm weather and easterly to southerly winds, followed by cloudy weather, lower temperature and rising barometer during the afternoon and evening.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 28.

Mr. FLANNAGAN said he was a new convert to the cause of woman suffrage, and was made a convert by the glorious efforts of the women's crusade against intemperance. Women, and women only, through Almighty God, could save this country from the worst of all evils—intemperance. Women could control our countrymen, if they were more directly interested, in all questions of morality better than men, and from this time henceforth he intended to be a "woman's man." (Laughter).

Mr. STEWART said ten years from now there would not be a man in the Senate opposed to female suffrage.

Mr. MERRIMON asked why not try the experiment in the District of Columbia.

Mr. SARGENT—We will when we get a chance.

Mr. CONKLING said the amendment was in order to this very bill to enforce woman suffrage in the District of Columbia, and if his friend Stewart desired to try an experiment in new territory, why not try it as an experiment here.

Mr. CARPENTER said he would vote for an amendment to confer suffrage, in the new territory, on women. He believed that in every condition of life the society of women was beneficial. In every place where she was found everything was neat and orderly. If our wives, mothers and daughters go to election places there will be decency, order and peace there. In the city of New York, for instance, he would rely more upon women voting to bring about peace and order than all the army or navy could do. He would vote to establish woman suffrage here, in Wisconsin or in any other place he could to-morrow.

Mr. FERRY of Michigan favored the amendment and said he would vote for it.

Mr. ANTHONY said he had no doubt female suffrage would come in time. He did not believe that suffrage was a woman's right or man's right. It was not a national right, but a political right, regulated by the body politic.

Mr. MORTON argued that women had the same natural rights as men had.

After further discussion Mr. EDMUNDS moved to lay the bill on the table. Lost by a tie vote—24 to 24.

The question then being on Sargent's amendment, Bayard said it seemed hardly possible the Senate of the United States proposed such change in the very fundamental principle of government; that such change as this should be blocked out as an experiment, in utter disregard of the decree by which men and women were created, could hardly be believed. The sexes were different physically and mentally, yet here was this poor, puny attempt in disregard of every experience, enlightened as it had been by Divine interposition. Such legislation as this was irreverent and in defiance of the laws of God Himself. It would give two heads to a family, and there would no longer be that unity, that subordination required by Christian marriage.

Mr. MORRILL of Maine opposed the amendment and denied that the right of suffrage was a natural one.

The amendment of Sargent was then rejected, as follows—yeas 19, nays 27. Dorsey, Spencer and Logan, who would have voted for the bill, were paired with Bogy, Johnston and Morrill of Maine, who would have voted against it.

The question then being on the final passage of the bill, it was rejected—yeas 19, nays 29.

Mr. MORTON, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, reported back the resolution of the Senate of March 10th, 1873, instructing the committee to examine and report upon the best and most practicable mode of electing President and Vice President, and providing a tribunal to adjust and decide all contested questions connected therewith, with a lengthy written report, which was ordered printed and placed on the calendar.

On motion of MORRILL of Maine the Senate took up the bill making an appropriation for the support of the military academy, that it might be unfinished business to-morrow, and then at 4:50 o'clock the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

THE REDUCTION OF THE ARMY.

Mr. COBURN estimated the saving to the government which the passage of the bill would effect at about $7,000,000.

Mr. BUTLER of Massachusetts gave notice of an amendment which he intended to offer that the headquarters of the army shall never be removed from the capital of the nation except in time of war.

After some further discussion the previous question was seconded and the bill went over until to-morrow.

The House at 4:30 o'clock took a recess until 7:30 the evening session to be for the consideration of the bill to amend the tariff.

The House met at 7:30 and went into Committee of the Whole, Tyner of Indiana in the chair, on the bill to amend the tariff and internal revenue laws. The proceedings opened with discussion on jute butts, based on the proposition by Kasson to make the duty on that article $6 per ton and to admit free of duty for two years machinery adapted to the manufacture of the fibre. The debate lasted more than an hour, and was participated in by Sailor, Wilson of Iowa, Butler of Massachusetts, Kelley, Hawley of Connecticut, Monroe, Dawes of Massachusetts, Luttrell, Page and Hereford.

Finally an amendment by Eames that machinery to be admitted free of duty should not be such as is manufactured in the United States was adopted as thus amended. Mr. Kasson's proposition was agreed to.

Mr. Myer's amendment of last night in regard to moisic iron, making the duty on it the same as on other iron of like conditions, grade and stage of manufacture, was adopted.

Mr. VANCE moved to put on the free list salt in bulk or packages, and made a speech in favor of the motion. On a vote by tellers there was a majority in favor of Vance's amendment, but there was no quorum and an attempt at compromise as to the vote in the House having failed, the committee and House at 10 o'clock adjourned.

Bronchitis is a dry inflammation of the mucous membrane of the Bronchia, which causes a constant deesire to expectorate, but with all the effects in scraping, coughing, or sneezing there is no mucous to be raised, and the difficulty increases until it becomes chronic; a constant hoarseness follows; years of suffering and death may result from this neglect if allowed to go on year after year without attempting to check and cure it. Use Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

Sold by Van Deusen Bros., Rondout and Kingston.

Briggs.

Consumption is a disease so common that a description is scarcely necessary, yet the causes are varied. Consumption is not contagious nor hereditary, but the general constitutions may follow one generation after another, and be from their physical organization more easily affected by this disease; but the chief are in neglecting the laws of nature, too much confinement in an unhealthy atmosphere, sudden colds, catarrh, great and continued exposures, impoverishing of the system by other diseases; in fact there are almost as many cases as there are victims; and one of the most fatal is that of young ladies who expose their health and endanger their lives in the most reckless manner when attending balls, parties, operas and other places of amusement, which result in Consumption and an early grave. It chiefly attacks the young, the fair and the amiable, and is considered incurable. In certain northern latitudes it prevails with the greatest violence, owing, probably, to the frequent atmospherical changes from heat to cold, dryness to dampness, &c. The general symptoms of this disease are an habitual cough, morbid expectoration, pains in the breast, casual finish or feverish heat in the hands, feet and shanks, change of voice, thin fingers and nose, bent or crooked nails, failing of the hair, &c. This disease has been divided into three, four, and even five stages by medical writers; but, for practical purposes, three stages will be found best adapted to the course of the disease. To entirely cure this cough and eradicate all the early symptoms of this fatal malady, Dr. J. BRIGGS' THROAT AND LUNG HEALER is thouroughly adequate and sure.

Briggs.

LAWS OF NEW YORK.—By Authority.

[Every law, unless a different time shall be prescribed therein, shall commence and take effect throughout the State, on and not before the twentieth day after the day of its final passage, as certified by the Secretary of State. Sec. 12, title 4, chap. 7, part 1, Revised Statutes.]

CHAP. 410.

AN ACT to authorize towns and villages to provide a sinking fund for the payment of their bonded indebtedness.

PASSED May 11, 1874; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any town or incorporated village in the State of New York, having issued its bonds, or that may hereafter issue its bonds, under the provisions of law, and said bonds being a valid debt of said town or village to mature or become due in a specified period of time, may by a vote of a majority of the electors present and voting at any annual town meeting or charter election of said village, raise by tax levied upon the taxable property of said town or village, such sum as may be specified by said vote in the manner hereinafter provided, for the purpose of buying and cancelling said bonds, or the purpose of providing a sinking fund for the ultimate payment of said bonds.

§ 2. The town board consisting of the supervisor, town clerk and justice of the peace in towns, or the village trustee in villages, shall meet at least twenty days before the annual town meeting or the annual village election, and shall determine by a majority of said board what amount shall be annually raised for the purpose as described in section one of this act, and the form of the ballot and the manner of voting, and shall give notice of such voting by posting at least five notices in public places in said town or village setting forth the time of such voting, the amount to be raised and the purpose for which the same is raised, and the result of such vote shall be operative until the same shall be changed by a vote of said electors taken in a similar manner at a subsequent election.

§ 3. The money so raised shall be used to buy and cancel the said bonds provided the same can be purchased at their par value, or in case said bonds cannot be so purchased, said money shall be paid over to the county treasurer of the county, who shall loan the same at seven per cent. per annum interest, secured by mortgage on unincumbered real estate for a period of time equal to the time said bonds have to run, or invest the same in bonds of the State of New York or of the United States, and at the maturity of said town or village bonds, said money shall be applied to the payment of said bonds, and the supervisor of such town or president of the trustees of said village shall be charged with the duty of receiving said money from said county treasurer, giving security for the same in double the amount received; and of purchasing or paying said bonds, and of cancelling the same in the presence of the said town board or village trustees as the case may be.

We call your kind attention,
And will tell you all we know
About Secore's Hats and Caps,
Bought at his store below.
Their qualities are splendid,
For wear they can't be beat;
You may travel over this city
Yet not find a Hat so neat.

CHORUS.

Come along, boys,
And join in with the band
To Secore's Hat store,
On Garden street is his stand,
Twenty-six is the number right above the door.
As we march, march, march to Secore's Hat Store.

His fine Hats for men and boys
Are found to be the best
That Kingston city can produce,
Or any of the rest.
For Secore is our Hatter,
His hats are all the go;
While their qualities are perfection,
And his prices are so low.
Come along boys, etc.

Then rouse up all you gay young men,
Who in style would be,
Don't go and be imposed upon
By every store you see;
But go direct to Secore's
And satisfy yourself,
That all the Hats are stylish
He takes from off his shelf.
Come along boys, etc.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

CITY NOTES.

—"Stod" has a new hat, and his Granger rig is now complete.

—The trade in straw hats has become quite vigorous.

—The laying of the foundation for the new German Lutheran Church on Spring street has been commenced.

—The mass of color afforded by the flowers along the foot of the terrace in Major Cornell's grounds is a beautiful sight.

—Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the present week are Ember Days, and are observed as such in the Catholic churches.

—Strawberries are quite plenty in our city markets—none but the wealthy can afford to enjoy them yet, however.

—On Thursday 61 canal boats laden with 7,920 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson Canal.

—Mr. John Weber is having an iron balcony erected on his building on the corner of Union avenue and Abeel street.

—Horseback riding is getting to be quite a popular amusement with several young men down town. Now, boys, take the girls with you and teach them equestrianism, too.

—It is suggested that women who insist on carrying their babies to places of amusement should leave them in the ante-room and take a check for them.

—Van Deusen Brothers had a couple of fine chromos on exhibition on Thursday, which led to the report that they were offering them as premiums with prescriptions.

—The prospects of a good fruit crop are most encouraging. The trees are filled with blossoms and young fruit, and unless something unforeseen occurs the yield will be very large.

—On Thursday afternoon the double-engine Albany and New York towing steamer Ohio came in the creek and coaled up from the island dock.

—"Gussie" should be more particular with her correspondence. One of her letters picked up in the street is very interesting, but we scarcely think she would be willing to have it published.

—Capt. Nathan Anderson has ordered a fine monument of Mr. Wm. J. Kent of this city, to be placed in h's family lot in Montrepose. The monument will be seventeen feet in height, and have a base of four feet square.

—We saw a stormy-browed woman administer a severe spanking to a sixteen-year old hoodlum on Thursday morning, for hitting her on the head with a ball. He didn't coo as gently as a sucking dove under the operation, either.

Sociable This Evening.

The people of this city are cordially invited to attend the sociable this evening at the residence of Mrs. E. Tompkins at Ponckhockie. The sociable is given in the interest of the Rondout Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society, whose labors for the new church deserve a hearty recognition.

Accident in the Creek.

Last evening, as the steamer Marshall was passing out of the creek with a tow, some of he boats composing the same struck the corner of Morgan Everson's sectional dock, driving it back some distance. The damage done did not merit the excitement made about it.

Amateur Dramatic Club.

The young men's Sodality attached to St. Joseph's Catholic Church in upper Kingston have organized a dramatic association, and have concluded to present the great moral drama entitled "The Hidden Gem." At the rehearsal held on Tuesday evening last some of the members of the club, it is said, gave evidences of quite remarkable dramatic talent.

Naughty Boys.

A number of the small boys whose parents live on the easterly side of Fair street, near Bowery, make it their business to rob every bird's nest they can find. It seems no man's grounds are free from these pests, and we would advise some one to bring them before the Recorder as the best way to put a stop to the practice. The robbing of birds' nests is made a misdemeanor by statute.

Personal.

Mrs. Amos Catlin of California, wife of Hon. Amos Catlin, formerly of Kingston, and son of the late Pearce Catlin, arrived in this city on a visit to relatives on Wednesday evening. Mr. Catlin is one of the three Commissioners appointed by the Governor of California to equalize the taxes of that state.

Mr. Eltinge Anderson during the present season will fill the post of Steward on board the Mary Powell.

Our office was illuminated on Thursday by the jolly phiz of George W. Davids, the world-renowned jokist of the Poughkeepsie Eagle. He came up to go down with the Powell on its Vassar College girls' excursion.

Runaway Accident.

While John Jem Cole was speeding the Marbletown Maid on Elmendorf street Wednesday evening, one side of the shafts dropped down and John Jem dropped backwards off the skeleton, while the Marbletown Maid made tracks for home. She soon left the skeleton a skeleton in fact as well as in name, and went through the streets uptown at a tremendous speed, the shafts regularly striking her heels and urging her to renewed exertion. Never slacking speed the noble animal went through Old Hurley like a shot and finally brought up a short distance from home, reeking wet but otherwise not injured.

The Culture of Shad.

The Albany Argus of Tuesday says: "The Fish Commission are now at work on the Hudson. The headquarters, opposite Castleton, are in charge of Mr. Seth Green, who has five men at work. This is his sixth year on the Hudson for hatching shad, and the result is all that the most sanguine ever expected, and more too. Shad have never before been so plenty, and there is every reason to believe that the supply will continue to increase. Mr. Green and his party began taking spawn on the 18th inst., and they will keep at work, at their present location, until about the last of June. Shad are more plenty in the Hudson River this year, and cheaper, than they have been for thirty years. The butchers along the Hudson say they wish Seth Green had gone to France (to which country he has been invited by the government) before he made shad so plenty and cheap in our river. The consumers, however, talk differently."

THE MARY POWELL ON A YACHT CRUISE.

On Thursday afternoon the well-known steamer Mary Powell left her wharf in this city at 5:10 P. M., bound for Poughkeepsie to take the senior and junior classes at Vassar College on a moonlight sail. The steamer, from her keel to her trucks, was as bonny as a bride in her marriage robes, and she "had all her ensigns dight" and fluttering in the May wind. Passing the Rondout lighthouse and heading down the river, the old and yet ever new panorama of the Hudson began to unfold itself as the steamer glided swiftly past the emerald shores, receiving the salutes from Captain Anderson's flag at Fairview, the joyous tones of bells and screams of steam whistles of the various steamers met and passed; and even the shad fishermen stopped the hauling in of their nets and raised a lusty shout of welcome and "God speed" as the boat flashed past like the gleam of a rainbow. With only thirty pounds pressure of steam to the square inch, the engine was making twenty-one turns, and in thirty-five minutes the "May" danced over eleven miles of water as blue as the Gulf Stream. We made a tour of the boat and saw every portion of it, and in every department it is order and neatness exemplified. No man-of-war that flies a pennant is in better order or more perfect discipline, as is proven by the fact that all the years during which she has been on the route, running 200 miles each day and landing at twenty docks on her passages, no accident to life or limb has ever occurred, and no damage to the boat of $100 at any one time has ever been inflicted—and that is a record which cannot be attributed to good luck, but to good management.

As the Mary Powell swept through Crum Elbow and came in view of Poughkeepsie the steam whistles and bells commenced an uproarious salute, which was continued until she was moored alongside of Main street dock. Even the locomotives at the railroad station set up a most diabolical screeching, which was meant for a welcome, and no sooner had Gurnsey brought the boat to a rest at the Poughkeepsie dock than a host of people came on board and gave utterances to exclamations of delight at the fine order in which the old favorite was in.

LEAVING POUGHKEEPSIE.

At 6:30 the first car load of ladies arrived at the foot of Main street and it was soon followed by others in rapid succession, until 120 students, comprising the senior and junior classes, beside the following named officers and professors of Vassar College, were on board: President J. H. Raymond, Professors T. J. Backus, H. Van Ingen, Orton, C. J. Hinkle, H. W. Terry, Misses Knapp, Braislin, Avery and Wood. The committee of the junior class, who chartered the steamer and perfected the arrangements for the extremely happy time which the young ladies enjoyed, was composed of the Misses L. W. Kellogg, L. Seller, H. H. Lough, F. M. Buffington and M. B. Taylor. The party were accompanied by seven members of Samelson's orchestra, and the Smith Bros. of Po'keepsie furnished refreshments, which consisted of every delicacy of the season. When the Powell left Main street wharf there was a considerable concourse of people present to see the excursion depart, and a crowd was also collected on the Kaal Rock, who waved their hats and handkerchiefs and raised a cheer as the boat glided gaily in mid-stream and headed toward the purple Highlands in the distance. Passing close in to Milton wharf the boat was greeted by people on the shore by cheering and waving and smiles, and one enthusiastic youth seized the rope to the bell on the dock and gave that brazen instrument such a lively shaking as it never experienced before. All along both shores from every house and hamlet some sign of welcome was manifested for the Powell, and each and every one of them was acknowledged by either blasts from the whistle or the deep tones of the bell. Just above Newburgh the Thomas Cornell was met, when the customary salutes between the boats were exchanged, and from all parts of the Cornell white signals of greeting were sent fluttering out by the passengers. At Newburgh the Powell ran close in along the city front and was most clamorously saluted by, it seemed to us, every thing in Newburgh from which music or noise could be extracted. On the miserable apology for a wharf and on the balcony of the shaky old barn upon it was a crowd of people, heroically braving the dangers of a plunge into the Hudson by the general collapse of both, to greet the boat in which every man, woman and child who resides in Newburgh considers he or she owns at least a quarter interest. After leaving Newburgh the moon shone forth in a cloudless sky, the fresh southerly breeze which had been blowing died away and the Vassar girls began to settle down to the enjoyment of the music, the moonlight and the rapid motion. Dancing was inaugurated in the saloon on the upper deck; singing parties assembled forward on the promenade; little groups of four or five went for a short time into the pilot house, and away forward on the main deck, "right in the eyes of her" was a party of six or eight rosy-cheeked, bright-eyed damsels, whose hair was blown about in the most ravishing manner and whose drapery streamed in the wind, giving an occasional glimpse of a neatly fitting gaiter—"only that and nothing more." Entering the Highlands, we glided through the shadow cast by the everlasting hills until rounding West Point we again came into the silvery path made by the moonlight, and when reaching Fort Montgomery the boat's head was turned homeward. On the passage homeward the ladies had their refreshments, after which they seemed to be seized with "the romantic" and were comparatively quietly engaged in looking at the moon, singing in low voices and conversing.

The steamer made a land at Cornwall to leave President Raymond, who was desirous of taking the James W. Baldwin at that point for New York. He was accompanied to the gangway by a crowd of the ladies, who took an affectionate leave of him and expressed regret at his forced departure. When the boat touched the dock at Cornwall and the President had walked on shore, the ladies, under the lead of Prof. Backus, gave him three cheers, with about the funniest, shrillest "tiger" ever heard—it was a cross between the howl of an infant with a severe attack of collywobbles and a rebel yell. From Cornwall the boat, with tide and wind in her favor, steamed rapidly homeward, arriving at Poughkeepsie at 10:20 P. M. The cars were ordered to be in waiting at Main street dock at 10:15, and at 10:20 the ladies were disembarking.

Just south of Poughkeepsie on the east bank of the river the residence of Mr. Hinckley was illuminated, and as the boat passed a grand display of fireworks was made, for which the Powell's bell rang out the thanks of the party.

To say that Captain Anderson and Jansen, as well as all the officers and crew, exerted themselves to make the Mary Powell as pleasant as possible to the Vassar ladies, is only stating the unvarnished truth. As for Jansen, had the chairman of the committee who chartered the boat said that twice two were seven, he would have sworn any man who was not impressed with the truth of that statement was a paralyzed imbecile. The only person not of Vassar College who accompanied the excursion were Mrs. Jansen Anderson, Mrs. John Wolfer, Messrs. C. C. Platt and Henry Weiner and a Freeman representative from this city, George W. Davids of the Poughkeepsie Eagle and W. J. Evarts of The News of Poughkeepsie.

Leaving Poughkeepsie homeward bound the boat made the run in 41 minutes, on slack water, which is at the rate of 23½ miles an hour, and good time considering it was the boat's first run of the season, when all her machinery is stiff. The run from Esopus lighthouse to Rondout lighthouse, five miles, was made in 10¼ minutes. The Powell has made the run from Poughkeepsie to her dock in this city in 39 minutes.

From ten minutes after 5 until 11:15 o'clock, the Powell made an excursion of 100 miles, and without a doubt it was the pleasantest moonlight excursion ever given on the Hudson River. Hurrah for the boat and her owner and commander!

Decoration Day.

Decoration Day will be observed in this city on Saturday next, May 30th, with the following ceremonies:

The graves of soldiers in the different cemeteries who had been engaged in the late war will be decorated with flowers. The carriages and flowers for the occasion will be voluntary offerings—all those who desire to contribute and assist in these offerings will please report to Col. C. D. Westbrook and Major Everett in the upper and Col. John McEntee and Lieutenant David S. Hasbrouck in the lower district. Officials, Civic, Military, Fire and Benevolent associations generally are invited to participate.

Information as to the location of graves is respectfully solicited from relatives or friends. Veterans are especially requested to report as above. A company or two of the National Guard will participate in the ceremonies.—The following are the names of the dead soldiers buried in this city so far as can be ascertained. If any person knows of others not mentioned here, he will please inform Col. Westbrook:

A full programme will be published to-morrow.

Methodistic Alliance—The Coming Camp Meeting.

The Troy Press of Saturday has the following: Mr. Joseph Hillman, of this city, returned yesterday afternoon from a visit to Louisville, Ky., where he was an earnest looker-on of the doings of the Southern Conference. He went there for the purpose of inviting the southern Bishops to attend the Round Lake camp meeting. He was warmly received and heartily welcomed by all with whom he met. His invitations were answered promptly and by every Bishop to whom he sent them. The following have signified their intention to attend: Bishops Kavanaugh, Pierce, Doggitt and Wright, of the M. E. Church—South; and J. B. McFarrin, Secretary of the M. E. Mission, South. At Columbus, Ohio, Mr. Hillman found the Northern Conference in session. Eight or twelve Bishops have signified their intention to attend the meeting at Round Lake, namely: Bishop Janes, who will have charge; Johnson, Foster, Peck, Haven, Scott, Andrews and Ames; Bishop Miles, of the Colored M. E. Church, South; Campbell, of the African M. E.; Clinton, of the Zion M. E.; Richardson of the Canadian M. E. church, Rev. Dr. Clark and ex-Gov. Pierpont of the Methodist church being non-Episcopal; Rev. Drs. Webster, Bates and Ors, of the Methodist Zion church; Rev. Dr. Deuvert and others of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Canada. The camp meeting opens July 8th and holds two weeks. It is with pleasure that the M. E. church extends a general invitation to all the other branches to meet at the Methodist alliance camp meeting at Round Lake. The line that has heretofore divided the church will be erased.

William B. Smith, formerly a resident of Kingston, and a large manufacturer of cigars and candies, but who, for the past few years, has resided and done business in Ellenville, left a few days ago for parts unknown, being indebted to various individuals in the sum of about $12,000. He has written a letter to his family, in which he states he owes so much he can never pay it, and never means to return to Ellenville. He further asks his family to forgive him for bringing this disgrace upon them. Mr. Smith for a number of years while in Kingston did a flourishing business and no doubt made a great deal of money. He was generally a high liver, his family a very expensive one, and Mr. Smith himself often dealt in fast horses and now and then frequented the race course. About the year 1870 he became involved in a difficulty with the Internal Revenue Department that cost him a large sum. From this time he began to weaken financially, and having met with severe losses during the trotting season of 1871, finally sold out and went to Ellenville. It was supposed he was doing a good business in Ellenville, and certainly he worked hard to retrieve his bad success. Mr. Smith had hosts of friends, and there are but few of his acquaintances who do not express sympathy for his troubles. It would have been much better for himself and family if he had stood it out and faced the world, but it seems he lacked the courage to do this. The Deputy Sheriff started for Ellenville Thursday with an attachment that will cover all the property he owns in that place.

County Line.

On Monday of last week Supervisors Scott of Andes and Reed of Middletown, with D. T. Arbuckle, Esq., of this village, Edward Burhans, Esq., of Roxbury, surveyors, met a similar delegation of Supervisors and surveyors from Ulster county, for the purpose of surveying and ascertaining the county line between Delaware and Ulster. They commenced at a point where the counties of Sullivan and Ulster corner together on the Delaware county line. At this point they found the large pile of stones which is the ancient landmark, and upon which father Time had placed his mark. This line was surveyed by the Cockburns in 1797, and has not since been surveyed. The party found many of the old marked trees of that day, and by boxing them could readily count the rings for each year's growth. On some parts of the line people were not paying taxes in either county, and one man, who has held town offices in Ulster for many years, was found to be a resident of this county. Quite a large amount of land which was supposed to be in Ulster was found to belong to Delaware, and the survey was very favorable to this county. The line was not all run, but will probably be completed this week.—Delaware Gazette.

How to Keep Gold Fish.

For the information of persons who keep gold fish in an aquarium, or a glass globe, we publish what the noted fish culturist, Seth Green, says in regard to their preservation: "Use any well, creek or river water that is not impregnated with mineral. Change the water when the fish come to the top and stay there, and breathe part water and part air. Take out nearly all the water, leaving enough for the fish to swim in, and fill the vessel with fresh water. Never take the fish in your hand. If the aquarium needs cleaning make a net of mosquito netting and take the fish out in it. There are many gold fish killed by handling. Keep your aquarium clean, so that the water looks as clear as crystal. Watch the fish a little and you will find out when they are all right. Feed them all they will eat and anything they will eat; worms, meat, fish water or fish spawn. Take great care that you take all that they do not eat out of the aquarium. Any decayed meat or vegetables in water has the same smell to fish that it does to you in air. If your gold fish die it is attributable, as a rule, to one of three causes—handling, starvation or bad water."

Newburgh District Stewards' Meeting.

The annual meeting of the District Stewards of Newburgh District (Methodist Episcopal) was held to-day in Trinity Church in this city. The District extends from Warwick to Saugerties and from the river to the Wallkill Valley, and contains about forty churches. The Presiding Elder, Rev. J. Y. Bates, occupied the chair, and Mr. William Graham, the representative of Trinity in the Board, was elected Secretary. Among the clergymen present were Rev. Messrs. Longacre, Corey, Osbon, Denniston and Lamont, of Newburgh, Lewis, of Warwick, and Wood of Milton. The meeting was commenced with singing, followed by prayer by Rev. Mr. Lewis. The minutes of the last annual session were read and approved. Various financial matters in regard to district parsonage, etc., were discussed and disposed of. The salary of the Presiding Elder was fixed at the same amount as last year—eighteen hundred dollars. The apportionment of various church collections was referred to the Presiding Elder.

Thomas E. Durland, of Sugar Loaf, was elected lay delegate to represent the district in the next annual Conference.

Newburgh District Camp Meeting Association.

The annual meeting of the Newburgh District Camp Meeting Association was held in Trinity M. E. Church this afternoon, the President, O. B. Welling, in the chair. The association reelected the following named Trustees for three years: Francis Gouldy, of Newburgh, J. H. Goodale, of Goshen, J. B. Demarest, of Warwick, and Silas Wood and Anthony Benson, of Kingston.

Circus Notes.

Many of the circus wagons took the wrong road on the other side of the river after they left Newburgh for Poughkeepsie, and got most to Kingston before they found out their mistake. They returned as soon as possible to the New Paltz ferry, and there suffered another vexatious delay. Their wagons were too high to go under the arch, and the wheels of every one of them had to be removed.—They reached Poughkeepsie four hours behind time, and as a consequence there was no morning performance. In the afternoon about 4,000 persons were present, and pickpockets were busy. One thief came very near stealing Alderman Brooks' watch and chain, but he was caught in the act. A move was made to secure the rascal but he escaped.—Po'keepsie Eagle.

To Our Patriotic Citizens.

We publish in another column the notice o the exercises proposed to be held to-morrow (Decoration Day). The enterprise has been undertaken by a few of our citizens, and such a ready response, notwithstanding the shortness of the time remaining to carry out the arragements, has been given that it is quite certain that a creditable turnout will be had. It is desirable that as many of our organizations as possible participate, and the committee specially request the civic, fire and other bodies to do so. Although but little time remains, we trust our patriotic citizens will respond to the call. All organizations reporting to the officers named in the notice referred to will be assigned places in the procession. Let us do honor to our hero dead in an appropriate manner.

Temperance Meeting.

The regular temperance meeting was held in the First M. E. Church on Fair street Wednesday evening, and was addressed by Susannah Evans, a Welsh lady of considerable fame in temperance circles. The speaker advocated strongly the woman's movement, and delivered a very forcible and eloquent lecture. She was frequently applauded, and the audience was well pleased with her address. It is to be regretted that so small a number of people were present to hear this lady, as she is an orator but few can equal.

Fined $10.

John Parslow was struck by Peter Post in a blacksmith's shop in Mutton Hollow the other day, and he immediately got a warrant from 'Squire Humphrey and had the pugilistic gentleman arrested for assault and battery. When Post was arrested he was carried before the court by the Constable, but the complainant was not notified. Parslow says the prisoner, however, was fined $10. Wonder how they tried him without the complainant.

Walkill Valley Railway.

The Directors of this company held a meeting at the Grand Central Hotel on Thursday, 28th inst. The following gentlemen were elected officers: Robert H. Berdell, President; Jacob Lefever, Vice President; J. E. Ostrander, Secretary.

—A gentleman who visited Paltz Point on Saturday last and made an inspection of the recent additions to the buildings, discourses eloquently of the vast improvements which have been made during the past year. Water for the use of guests is now raised from the lake by means of a windmill and hydraulic ram. The baths are a feature which will be prized very highly.—Independent.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

Shokan on Temperance.

SHOKAN, May 27, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN:—We hope that your readers will not be misled by the article in yesterday's Freeman entitled "A Shokan Drink." The good results of the action of our Board of Excise are too apparent to require any assurance from us, and the wish is expressed on all sides that nothing may lead the Board to reverse their decision.

As to the "New York man's" tears it is to be hoped he may have the same occasion to shed them whenever he visits us. Had the Phœnicia man, who came so near being dragged under the wheel of the moving train yesterday at this place, been killed or maimed our friend Van Keuren would have had occasion to rejoice that he couldn't sell the liquor that made him incapable of taking care of himself. OLIVE.

The Steamer Mary Powell,

Captain A. L. ANDERSON, will make her first trip of the season from New York, Pier 39, N. R., foot of Vestry street, on Saturday, May 30th, leaving at 3:30 P. M., and making her usual landings. Leaves Rondout on Monday morning, June 1st, at 5:30 A. M., arriving in New York at 10:30 A. M., and continuing throughout the season.

ROBINSON & GILMORE.

"Does A. M. Low keep a Wholesale Boot and Shoe Store?" asked a stranger as he stood and looked at the barricade of boot and shoe boxes piled upon his walk. "Oh, no," says a citizen; "he sells only at retail, but he sells so LOW he sells a great many of them." And more of the same sort left, right this way.

Headache.

How many ladies, young and old, are abject slaves to Headache, Neuralgia, etc., making them unfit to enjoy society, rendering life a burden, and robbing them of beauty, youth and amiability. Briggs' Allevantor is a pleasant and certain cure. Sold by Calvin Markle, Accord.

LARYNGITIS, OR CLERGYMAN'S SORE THROAT, is an inflamation of the Throat and Larynx, caused by over-exertion in speaking or singing, very often becoming chronic, attended with hoarseness and great difficulty in swallowing, and intense suffering in speaking. It often becomes very serious in cases of long standing, and death has frequently resulted from this disease. Burning, cauterizing and other severe methods of treatment are dangerous. BRIGGS' THROAT AND LUNG HEALER is a soothing an reliable remedy. Sold by R. Deyo, Rondout.

PILES may be caused by anything that will irritate the lower bowels, producing a determination of blood to the rectum, as drastic cathartics, from the extensive use of which, in past years, the disease has become very common, habitual constipation, straining at stool, diseases of the liver, much riding on horseback, tight stays, sedentary habits, high living, heating, irritating food, etc. USE BRIGG'S PILE REMEDIES. Sold by S. E. D. Hoornbeck, Wawarsing.

Corns.

Miracles are so common that we are no more surprised at the miraculous, but we are delighted to have our corns disappear and bunions cease to throb with pain, ingrowing nails no longer penetrate the flesh. All these benefits are secured by the use of Briggs' Miraculous Corn and Bunion Remedies. Sold by P. Gray, High Falls.

"Good morning, Susan; how do you dew?" "Very well, I thank you, but ma is almost dead with her bunions." "Well, I declare; I never heard she had such things, but they do say Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are a sartin cure. All the drug stores have got some and say they sell awful fast." Sold by Dr. Lounsbery, Stone Ridge.

Dr. J. Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer is composed of Canada Balsam, Extract of Tamarac, and other Balsam, Gums, Roots, Plants, &c., which are combined in the most scientific manner. It is pleasant and more agreeable to take than any other in use. Old people like it, and babies cry for it. Sold by Van Deusen Bros., Rondout and Kingston.

Piles.

If it were possible to portray the torture endured by millions who are troubled with internal, bleeding, external and itching piles, the picture would not be a pleasant one. The agonies of the cursed cannot be worse, and from these sufferings there seems no escape. But science has demonstrated there is a remedy, safe and reliable. Dr. J. Briggs' Pile Remedies are the climax of medical science. Sold by J. G. Kemble, Stone Ridge.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

CITY NOTES.

—"Stod" has a new hat, and his Granger rig is now complete.

—The trade in straw hats has become quite vigorous.

—The laying of the foundation for the new German Lutheran Church on Spring street has been commenced.

—The mass of color afforded by the flowers along the foot of the terrace in Major Cornell's grounds is a beautiful sight.

—Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the present week are Ember Days, and are observed as such in the Catholic churches.

—Strawberries are quite plenty in our city markets—none but the wealthy can afford to enjoy them yet, however.

—Hasbrouck avenue roadway, above the residence of the Mayor, is in a very bad condition.

—On Thursday 61 canal boats laden with 7,920 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson Canal.

—Mr. John Weber is having an iron balcony erected on his building on the corner of Union avenue and Abeel street.

—Horseback riding is getting to be quite a popular amusement with several young men down town. Now, boys, take the girls with you and teach them equestrianism, too.

—It is suggested that women who insist on carrying their babies to places of amusement should leave them in the ante-room and take a check for them.

—Van Deusen Brothers had a couple of fine chromos on exhibition on Thursday, which led to the report that they were offering them as premiums with prescriptions.

—The prospects of a good fruit crop are most encouraging. The trees are filled with blossoms and young fruit, and unless something unforeseen occurs the yield will be very large.

—On Thursday afternoon the double-engine Albany and New York towing steamer Ohio came in the creek and coaled up from the island dock.

—"Gussie" should be more particular with her correspondence. One of her letters picked up in the street is very interesting, but we scarcely think she would be willing to have it published.

—Capt. Nathan Anderson has ordered a fine monument of Mr. Wm. J. Kent of this city, to be placed in his family lot in Montrepose. The monument will be seventeen feet in height, and have a base of four feet square.

—We saw a stormy-browed woman administer a severe spanking to a sixteen-year old hoodlum on Thursday morning, for hitting her on the head with a ball. He didn't coo as gently as a sucking dove under the operation, either.

Sociable This Evening.

The people of this city are cordially invited to attend the sociable this evening at the residence of Mrs. E. Tompkins at Ponckhockie. The sociable is given in the interest of the Rondout Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society, whose labors for the new church deserve a hearty recognition.

Accident in the Creek.

Last evening, as the steamer Marshall was passing out of the creek with a tow, some of he boats composing the same struck the corner of Morgan Everson's sectional dock, driving it back some distance. The damage done did not merit the excitement made about it.

Amateur Dramatic Club.

The young men's Sodality attached to St. Joseph's Catholic Church in upper Kingston have organized a dramatic association, and have concluded to present the great moral drama entitled "The Hidden Gem." At the rehearsal held on Tuesday evening last some of the members of the club, it is said, gave evidences of quite remarkable dramatic talent.

Naughty Boys.

A number of the small boys whose parents live on the easterly side of Fair street, near Bowery, make it their business to rob every bird's nest they can find. It seems no man's grounds are free from these pests, and we would advise some one to bring them before the Recorder as the best way to put a stop to the practice. The robbing of birds' nests is made a misdemeanor by statute.

Personal.

Mrs. Amos Catlin of California, wife of Hon. Amos Catlin, formerly of Kingston, and son of the late Pearce Catlin, arrived in this city on a visit to relatives on Wednesday evening. Mr. Catlin is one of the three Commissioners appointed by the Governor of California to equalize the taxes of that state.

Mr. Eltinge Anderson during the present season will fill the post of Steward on board the Mary Powell.

Our office was illuminated on Thursday by the jolly phiz of George W. Davids, the world-renowned jokist of the Poughkeepsie Eagle. He came up to go down with the Powell on its Vassar College girls' excursion.

Runaway Accident.

While John Jem Cole was speeding the Marbletown Maid on Elmendorf street Wednesday evening, one side of the shafts dropped down and John Jem dropped backwards off the skeleton, while the Marbletown Maid made tracks for home. She soon left the skeleton a skeleton in fact as well as in name, and went through the streets uptown at a tremendous speed, the shafts regularly striking her heels and urging her to renewed exertion. Never slacking speed the noble animal went through Old Hurley like a shot and finally brought up a short distance from home, reeking wet but otherwise not injured.

The Culture of Shad.

The Albany Argus of Tuesday says: "The Fish Commission are now at work on the Hudson. The headquarters, opposite Castleton, are in charge of Mr. Seth Green, who has five men at work. This is his sixth year on the Hudson for hatching shad, and the result is all that the most sanguine ever expected, and more too. Shad have never before been so plenty, and there is every reason to believe that the supply will continue to increase. Mr. Green and his party began taking spawn on the 18th inst., and they will keep at work, at their present location, until about the last of June. Shad are more plenty in the Hudson River this year, and cheaper, than they have been for thirty years. The butchers along the Hudson say they wish Seth Green had gone to France (to which country he has been invited by the government) before he made shad so plenty and cheap in our river. The consumers, however, talk differently."

THE MARY POWELL ON A YACHT CRUISE.

On Thursday afternoon the well-known steamer Mary Powell left her wharf in this city at 5:10 P. M., bound for Poughkeepsie to take the senior and junior classes at Vassar College on a moonlight sail. The steamer, from her keel to her trucks, was as bonny as a bride in her marriage robes, and she "had all her ensigns dight" and fluttering in the May wind. Passing the Rondout lighthouse and heading down the river, the old and yet ever new panorama of the Hudson began to unfold itself as the steamer glided swiftly past the emerald shores, receiving the salutes from Captain Anderson's flag at Fairview, the joyous tones of bells and screams of steam whistles of the various steamers met and passed; and even the shad fishermen stopped the hauling in of their nets and raised a lusty shout of welcome and "God speed" as the boat flashed past like the gleam of a rainbow. With only thirty pounds pressure of steam to the square inch, the engine was making twenty-one turns, and in thirty-five minutes the "May" danced over eleven miles of water as blue as the Gulf Stream. We made a tour of the boat and saw every portion of it, and in every department it is order and neatness exemplified. No man-of-war that flies a pennant is in better order or more perfect discipline, as is proven by the fact that all the years during which she has been on the route, running 200 miles each day and landing at twenty docks on her passages, no accident to life or limb has ever occurred, and no damage to the boat of $100 at any one time has ever been inflicted—and that is a record which cannot be attributed to good luck, but to good management.

As the Mary Powell swept through Crum Elbow and came in view of Poughkeepsie the steam whistles and bells commenced an uproarious salute, which was continued until she was moored alongside of Main street dock. Even the locomotives at the railroad station set up a most diabolical screeching, which was meant for a welcome, and no sooner had Gurnsey brought the boat to a rest at the Poughkeepsie dock than a host of people came on board and gave utterances to exclamations of delight at the fine order in which the old favorite was in.

LEAVING POUGHKEEPSIE.

At 6:30 the first car load of ladies arrived at the foot of Main street and it was soon followed by others in rapid succession, until 120 students, comprising the senior and junior classes, beside the following named officers and professors of Vassar College, were on board: President J. H. Raymond, Professors T. J. Backus, H. Van Ingen, Orton, C. J. Hinkle, H. W. Terry, Misses Knapp, Braislin, Avery and Wood. The committee of the junior class, who chartered the steamer and perfected the arrangements for the extremely happy time which the young ladies enjoyed, was composed of the Misses L. W. Kellogg, L. Seller, H. H. Lough, F. M. Buffington and M. B. Taylor. The party were accompanied by seven members of Samelson's orchestra, and the Smith Bros. of Po'keepsie furnished refreshments, which consisted of every delicacy of the season. When the Powell left Main street wharf there was a considerable concourse of people present to see the excursion depart, and a crowd was also collected on the Kaal Rock, who waved their hats and handkerchiefs and raised a cheer as the boat glided gaily in mid-stream and headed toward the purple Highlands in the distance. Passing close in to Milton wharf the boat was greeted by people on the shore by cheering and waving and smiles, and one enthusiastic youth seized the rope to the bell on the dock and gave that brazen instrument such a lively shaking as it never experienced before. All along both shores from every house and hamlet some sign of welcome was manifested for the Powell, and each and every one of them was acknowledged by either blasts from the whistle or the deep tones of the bell. Just above Newburgh the Thomas Cornell was met, when the customary salutes between the boats were exchanged, and from all parts of the Cornell white signals of greeting were sent fluttering out by the passengers. At Newburgh the Powell ran close in along the city front and was most clamorously saluted by, it seemed to us, every thing in Newburgh from which music or noise could be extracted. On the miserable apology for a wharf and on the balcony of the shaky old barn upon it was a crowd of people, heroically braving the dangers of a plunge into the Hudson by the general collapse of both, to greet the boat in which every man, woman and child who resides in Newburgh considers he or she owns at least a quarter interest. After leaving Newburgh the moon shone forth in a cloudless sky, the fresh southerly breeze which had been blowing died away and the Vassar girls began to settle down to the enjoyment of the music, the moonlight and the rapid motion. Dancing was inaugurated in the saloon on the upper deck; singing parties assembled forward on the promenade; little groups of four or five went for a short time into the pilot house, and away forward on the main deck, "right in the eyes of her" was a party of six or eight rosy-cheeked, bright-eyed damsels, whose hair was blown about in the most ravishing manner and whose drapery streamed in the wind, giving an occasional glimpse of a neatly fitting gaiter—"only that and nothing more." Entering the Highlands, we glided through the shadow cast by the everlasting hills until rounding West Point we again came into the silvery path made by the moonlight, and when reaching Fort Montgomery the boat's head was turned homeward. On the passage homeward the ladies had their refreshments, after which they seemed to be seized with "the romantic" and were comparatively quietly engaged in looking at the moon, singing in low voices and conversing.

The steamer made a land at Cornwall to leave President Raymond, who was desirous of taking the James W. Baldwin at that point for New York. He was accompanied to the gangway by a crowd of the ladies, who took an affectionate leave of him and expressed regret at his forced departure. When the boat touched the dock at Cornwall and the President had walked on shore, the ladies, under the lead of Prof. Backus, gave him three cheers, with about the funniest, shrillest "tiger" ever heard—it was a cross between the howl of an infant with a severe attack of collywobbles and a rebel yell. From Cornwall the boat, with tide and wind in her favor, steamed rapidly homeward, arriving at Poughkeepsie at 10:20 P. M. The cars were ordered to be in waiting at Main street dock at 10:15, and at 10:20 the ladies were disembarking.

Just south of Poughkeepsie on the east bank of the river the residence of Mr. Hinckley was illuminated, and as the boat passed a grand display of fireworks was made, for which the Powell's bell rang out the thanks of the party.

To say that Captain Anderson and Jansen, as well as all the officers and crew, exerted themselves to make the Mary Powell as pleasant as possible to the Vassar ladies, is only stating the unvarnished truth. As for Jansen, had the chairman of the committee who chartered the boat said that twice two were seven, he would have sworn any man who was not impressed with the truth of that statement was a paralyzed imbecile. The only person not of Vassar College who accompanied the excursion were Mrs. Jansen Anderson, Mrs. John Wolfer, Messrs. C. C. Platt and Henry Weiner and a Freeman representative from this city, George W. Davids of the Poughkeepsie Eagle and W. J. Evarts of The News of Poughkeepsie.

Leaving Poughkeepsie homeward bound the boat made the run in 41 minutes, on slack water, which is at the rate of 23½ miles an hour, and good time considering it was the boat's first run of the season, when all her machinery is stiff. The run from Esopus lighthouse to Rondout lighthouse, five miles, was made in 10½ minutes. The Powell has made the run from Poughkeepsie to her dock in this city in 39 minutes.

From ten minutes after 5 until 11:15 o'clock, the Powell made an excursion of 100 miles, and without a doubt it was the pleasantest moonlight excursion ever given on the Hudson River. Hurrah for the boat and her owner and commander!

Decoration Day.

Decoration Day will be observed in this city on Saturday next, May 30th, with the following ceremonies:

The graves of soldiers in the different cemeteries who had been engaged in the late war will be decorated with flowers. The carriages and flowers for the occasion will be voluntary offerings—all those who desire to contribute and assist in these offerings will please report to Col. C. D. Westbrook and Major Everett in the upper and Col. John McEntee and Lieutenant David S. Hasbrouck in the lower district. Officials, Civic, Military, Fire and Benevolent associations generally are invited to participate.

Information as to the location of graves is respectfully solicited from relatives or friends. Veterans are especially requested to report as above. A company or two of the National Guard will participate in the ceremonies.—The following are the names of the dead soldiers buried in this city so far as can be ascertained. If any person knows of others not mentioned here, he will please inform Col. Westbrook:

A full programme will be published to-morrow.

Methodistic Alliance—The Coming Camp Meeting.

The Troy Press of Saturday has the following: Mr. Joseph Hillman, of this city, returned yesterday afternoon from a visit to Louisville, Ky., where he was an earnest looker-on of the doings of the Southern Conference. He went there for the purpose of inviting the southern Bishops to attend the Round Lake camp meeting. He was warmly received and heartily welcomed by all with whom he met. His invitations were answered promptly and by every Bishop to whom he sent them. The following have signified their intention to attend: Bishops Kavanaugh, Pierce, Doggitt and Wright, of the M. E. Church—South; and J. B. McFarrin, Secretary of the M. E. Mission, South. At Columbus, Ohio, Mr. Hillman found the Northern Conference in session. Eight or twelve Bishops have signified their intention to attend the meeting at Round Lake, namely: Bishop Janes, who will have charge; Johnson, Foster, Peck, Haven, Scott, Andrews and Ames; Bishop Miles, of the Colored M. E. Church, South; Campbell, of the African M. E.; Clinton, of the Zion M. E.; Richardson of the Canadian M. E. church, Rev. Dr. Clark and ex-Gov. Pierpont of the Methodist church being non-Episcopal; Rev. Drs. Webster, Bates and Ors, of the Methodist Zion church; Rev. Dr. Deuvert and others of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Canada. The camp meeting opens July 8th and holds two weeks. It is with pleasure that the M. E. church extends a general invitation to all the other branches to meet at the Methodist alliance camp meeting at Round Lake. The line that has heretofore divided the church will be erased.

William B. Smith, formerly a resident of Kingston, and a large manufacturer of cigars and candies, but who, for the past few years, has resided and done business in Ellenville, left a few days ago for parts unknown, being indebted to various individuals in the sum of about $12,000. He has written a letter to his family, in which he states he owes so much he can never pay it, and never means to return to Ellenville. He further asks his family to forgive him for bringing this disgrace upon them. Mr. Smith for a number of years while in Kingston did a flourishing business and no doubt made a great deal of money. He was generally a high liver, his family a very expensive one, and Mr. Smith himself often dealt in fast horses and now and then frequented the race course. About the year 1870 he became involved in a difficulty with the Internal Revenue Department that cost him a large sum. From this time he began to weaken financially, and having met with severe losses during the trotting season of 1871, finally sold out and went to Ellenville. It was supposed he was doing a good business in Ellenville, and certainly he worked hard to retrieve his bad success. Mr. Smith had hosts of friends, and there are but few of his acquaintances who do not express sympathy for his troubles. It would have been much better for himself and family if he had stood it out and faced the world, but it seems he lacked the courage to do this. The Deputy Sheriff started for Ellenville Thursday with an attachment that will cover all the property he owns in that place.

County Line.

On Monday of last week Supervisors Scott of Andes and Reed of Middletown, with D. T. Arbuckle, Esq., of this village, Edward Burhans, Esq., of Roxbury, surveyors, met a similar delegation of Supervisors and surveyors from Ulster county, for the purpose of surveying and ascertaining the county line between Delaware and Ulster. They commenced at a point where the counties of Sullivan and Ulster corner together on the Delaware county line. At this point they found the large pile of stones which is the ancient landmark, and upon which father Time had placed his mark. This line was surveyed by the Cockburns in 1797, and has not since been surveyed. The party found many of the old marked trees of that day, and by boxing them could readily count the rings for each year's growth. On some parts of the line people were not paying taxes in either county, and one man, who has held town offices in Ulster for many years, was found to be a resident of this county. Quite a large amount of land which was supposed to be in Ulster was found to belong to Delaware, and the survey was very favorable to this county. The line was not all run, but will probably be completed this week.—Delaware Gazette.

How to Keep Gold Fish.

For the information of persons who keep gold fish in an aquarium, or a glass globe, we publish what the noted fish culturist, Seth Green, says in regard to their preservation: "Use any well, creek or river water that is not impregnated with mineral. Change the water when the fish come to the top and stay there, and breathe part water and part air. Take out nearly all the water, leaving enough for the fish to swim in, and fill the vessel with fresh water. Never take the fish in your hand. If the aquarium needs cleaning make a net of mosquito netting and take the fish out in it. There are many gold fish killed by handling. Keep your aquarium clean, so that the water looks as clear as crystal. Watch the fish a little and you will find out when they are all right. Feed them all they will eat and anything they will eat; worms, meat, fish water or fish spawn. Take great care that you take all that they do not eat out of the aquarium. Any decayed meat or vegetables in water has the same smell to fish that it does to you in air. If your gold fish die it is attributable, as a rule, to one of three causes—handling, starvation or bad water."

Newburgh District Stewards' Meeting.

The annual meeting of the District Stewards of Newburgh District (Methodist Episcopal) was held to-day in Trinity Church in this city. The District extends from Warwick to Saugerties and from the river to the Wallkill Valley, and contains about forty churches. The Presiding Elder, Rev. J. Y. Bates, occupied the chair, and Mr. William Graham, the representative of Trinity in the Board, was elected Secretary. Among the clergymen present were Rev. Messrs. Longacre, Corey, Osbon, Denniston and Lamont, of Newburgh, Lewis, of Warwick, and Wood of Milton. The meeting was commenced with singing, followed by prayer by Rev. Mr. Lewis. The minutes of the last annual session were read and approved. Various financial matters in regard to district parsonage, etc., were discussed and disposed of. The salary of the Presiding Elder was fixed at the same amount as last year—eighteen hundred dollars. The apportionment of various church collections was referred to the Presiding Elder.

Thomas E. Durland, of Sugar Loaf, was elected lay delegate to represent the district in the next annual Conference.

Newburgh District Camp Meeting Association.

The annual meeting of the Newburgh District Camp Meeting Association was held in Trinity M. E. Church this afternoon, the President, O. B. Welling, in the chair. The association reelected the following named Trustees for three years: Francis Gouldy, of Newburgh, J. H. Goodale, of Goshen, J. B. Demarest, of Warwick, and Silas Wood and Anthony Benson, of Kingston.

Circus Notes.

Many of the circus wagons took the wrong road on the other side of the river after they left Newburgh for Poughkeepsie, and got most to Kingston before they found out their mistake. They returned as soon as possible to the New Paltz ferry, and there suffered another vexatious delay. Their wagons were too high to go under the arch, and the wheels of every one of them had to be removed.—They reached Poughkeepsie four hours behind time, and as a consequence there was no morning performance. In the afternoon about 4,000 persons were present, and pickpockets were busy. One thief came very near stealing Alderman Brooks' watch and chain, but he was caught in the act. A move was made to secure the rascal but he escaped.—Po'keepsie Eagle.

To Our Patriotic Citizens.

We publish in another column the notice o the exercises proposed to be held to-morrow (Decoration Day). The enterprise has been undertaken by a few of our citizens, and such a ready response, notwithstanding the shortness of the time remaining to carry out the arragements, has been given that it is quite certain that a creditable turnout will be had. It is desirable that as many of our organizations as possible participate, and the committee specially request the civic, fire and other bodies to do so. Although but little time remains, we trust our patriotic citizens will respond to the call. All organizations reporting to the officers named in the notice referred to will be assigned places in the procession. Let us do honor to our hero dead in an appropriate manner.

Temperance Meeting.

The regular temperance meeting was held in the First M. E. Church on Fair street Wednesday evening, and was addressed by Susannah Evans, a Welsh lady of considerable fame in temperance circles. The speaker advocated strongly the woman's movement, and delivered a very forcible and eloquent lecture. She was frequently applauded, and the audience was well pleased with her address. It is to be regretted that so small a number of people were present to hear this lady, as she is an orator but few can equal.

Fined $10.

John Parslow was struck by Peter Post in a blacksmith's shop in Mutton Hollow the other day, and he immediately got a warrant from 'Squire Humphrey and had the pugilistic gentleman arrested for assault and battery. When Post was arrested he was carried before the court by the Constable, but the complainant was not notified. Parslow says the prisoner, however, was fined $10. Wonder how they tried him without the complainant.

Wallkill Valley Railway.

The Directors of this company held a meeting at the Grand Central Hotel on Thursday, 28th inst. The following gentlemen were elected officers: Robert H. Berdell, President; Jacob Lefever, Vice President; J. E. Ostrander, Secretary.

—A gentleman who visited Paltz Point on Saturday last and made an inspection of the recent additions to the buildings, discourses eloquently of the vast improvements which have been made during the past year. Water for the use of guests is now raised from the lake by means of a windmill and hydraulic ram. The baths are a feature which will be prized very highly.—Independent.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

Shokan on Temperance.

SHOKAN, May 27, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN:—We hope that your readers will not be misled by the article in yesterday's Freeman entitled "A Shokan Drink." The good results of the action of our Board of Excise are too apparent to require any assurance from us, and the wish is expressed on all sides that nothing may lead the Board to reverse their decision.

As to the "New York man's" tears it is to be hoped he may have the same occasion to shed them whenever he visits us. Had the Phœnicia man, who came so near being dragged under the wheel of the moving train yesterday at this place, been killed or maimed our friend Van Keuren would have had occasion to rejoice that he couldn't sell the liquor that made him incapable of taking care of himself. OLIVE.

The Steamer Mary Powell,

Captain A. L. ANDERSON, will make her first trip of the season from New York, Pier 39, N. R., foot of Vestry street, on Saturday, May 30th, leaving at 3:30 P. M., and making her usual landings. Leaves Rondout on Monday morning, June 1st, at 5:30 A. M., arriving in New York at 10:30 A. M., and continuing throughout the season.

ROBINSON & GILMORE.

"Does A. M. Low keep a Wholesale Boot and Shoe Store?" asked a stranger as he stood and looked at the barricade of boot and shoe boxes piled upon his walk. "Oh, no," says a citizen; "he sells only at retail, but he sells so LOW he sells a great many of them." And more of the same sort left, right this way.

Headache.

How many ladies, young and old, are abject slaves to Headache, Neuralgia, etc., making them unfit to enjoy society, rendering life a burden, and robbing them of beauty, youth and amiability. Briggs' Allevantor is a pleasant and certain cure. Sold by Calvin Markle, Accord.

LARYNGITIS, OR CLERGYMAN'S SORE THROAT, is an inflamation of the Throat and Larynx, caused by over-exertion in speaking or singing, very often becoming chronic, attended with hoarseness and great difficulty in swallowing, and intense suffering in speaking. It often becomes very serious in cases of long standing, and death has frequently resulted from this disease. Burning, cauterizing and other severe methods of treatment are dangerous. BRIGGS' THROAT AND LUNG HEALER is a soothing an reliable remedy. Sold by R. Deyo, Rondout.

PILES may be caused by anything that will irritate the lower bowels, producing a determination of blood to the rectum, as drastic cathartics, from the extensive use of which, in past years, the disease has become very common, habitual constipation, straining at stool, diseases of the liver, much riding on horseback, tight stays, sedentary habits, high living, heating, irritating food, etc. USE BRIGG'S PILE REMEDIES. Sold by S. E. D. Hoornbeck, Wawarsing.

Corns.

Miracles are so common that we are no more surprised at the miraculous, but we are delighted to have our corns disappear and bunions cease to throb with pain, ingrowing nails no longer penetrate the flesh. All these benefits are secured by the use of Briggs' Miraculous Corn and Bunion Remedies. Sold by P. Gray, High Falls.

"Good morning, Susan; how do you dew?" "Very well, I thank you, but ma is almost dead with her bunions." "Well, I declare; I never heard she had such things, but they do say Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are a sartin cure. All the drug stores have got some and say they sell awful fast." Sold by Dr. Lounsbery, Stone Ridge.

Dr. J. Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer is composed of Canada Balsam, Extract of Tamarac, and other Balsam, Gums, Roots, Plants, &c., which are combined in the most scientific manner. It is pleasant and more agreeable to take than any other in use. Old people like it, and babies cry for it. Sold by Van Deusen Bros., Rondout and Kingston.

Piles.

If it were possible to portray the torture endured by millions who are troubled with internal, bleeding, external and itching piles, the picture would not be a pleasant one. The agonies of the cursed cannot be worse, and from these sufferings there seems no escape. But science has demonstrated there is a remedy, safe and reliable. Dr. J. Briggs' Pile Remedies are the climax of medical science. Sold by J. G. Kemble, Stone Ridge.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM — ALCOHOL

PURELY — DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA — EUREKA

VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

ERIE RAILWAY

EASTERN DIVISION AND BRANCHES

The direct and popular Route from all parts of ORANGE and ULSTER Counties to NEW YORK CITY.

And the great through route to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago, Cincinnati, and all points WEST.

Rondout, May 1st, 1874.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to our Spring opening of Carpets, Dress Fabrics, General Dry Goods and Housekeeping Articles, and we confidently believe that a fair inspection will demonstrate our Stock to be second to none in this city.

These goods are of recent purchase and our best judgment has been exerted in selection of styles, varieties and adaptation to the needs of this vicinity.

Every advantage to be gained from buying for Cash, and in discounts and differences on time bills, has been realized by us on these invoices, and as the old axiom "Goods well bought are half sold" is still a truism, we count on an active and satisfactory trade.

The practice of our firm in regard to marking profits is generally known, but we reiterate it here, as aiming for a large trade at small advances and with quick returns, rather than the old style of full profits, moderate sales, extended credits, and old goods held for original prices.

In the line of Carpets, we deem ourselves specially fortunate in having made almost an entire clearance at our annual stock taking (March 1st), and thus are not encumbered with old patterns, or hampered by necessity of sale of last year's goods at actual loss, but can offer our friends entirely fresh goods at prices now current. These goods are not bought in lots at few places, but culled from every leading stock in New York City that holds out an attraction or makes an extra inducement on price; and for variety, desirableness and cheapness, they are unexcelled in this city.

Our entire stock on main floor is unusually complete and attractive, and it will afford us pleasure to show you these Goods at your earliest convenience.

GENTS WANTED FOR THE CENTENNIAL GAZETTEER OF THE UNITED STATES.

No book has ever been published of such universal interest to the American people. It appeals to no particular class alone, but to all classes; to men and women of all professions, creeds, occupations and political opinions—to Farmers, Lawyers, Business Men, Mechanics, Physicians, Politicians, Teachers, Students, Manufacturers, Salesmen, men of learning and men who can only read, to old and young. All want it as a book of constant reference, and to preserve for their children and children's children as the only complete and reliable work, showing the gigantic results of THE FIRST ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF THE GREATEST REPUBLIC THE WORLD EVER SAW. It is not a luxury but a necessity to every well-informed American citizen. Agents make $100 to $300 per month. Send for circular. ZIEGLER & McCURDY, Philadelphia, Pa. May 12w4

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

The direct and popular Route from all parts of ORANGE and ULSTER Counties to NEW YORK CITY.

And the great through route to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago, Cincinnati, and all points WEST.

Rondout, May 1st, 1874.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to our Spring opening of Carpets, Dress Fabrics, General Dry Goods and Housekeeping Articles, and we confidently believe that a fair inspection will demonstrate our Stock to be second to none in this city.

These goods are of recent purchase and our best judgment has been exerted in selection of styles, varieties and adaptation to the needs of this vicinity.

Every advantage to be gained from buying for Cash, and in discounts and differences on time bills, has been realized by us on these invoices, and as the old axiom "Goods well bought are half sold" is still a truism, we count on an active and satisfactory trade.

The practice of our firm in regard to marking profits is generally known, but we reiterate it here, as aiming for a large trade at small advances and with quick returns, rather than the old style of full profits, moderate sales, extended credits, and old goods held for original prices.

In the line of Carpets, we deem ourselves specially fortunate in having made almost an entire clearance at our annual stock taking (March 1st), and thus are not encumbered with old patterns, or hampered by necessity of sale of last year's goods at actual loss, but can offer our friends entirely fresh goods at prices now current. These goods are not bought in lots at few places, but culled from every leading stock in New York City that holds out an attraction or makes an extra inducement on price; and for variety, desirableness and cheapness, they are unexcelled in this city.

Our entire stock on main floor is unusually complete and attractive, and it will afford us pleasure to show you these Goods at your earliest convenience.

GENTS WANTED FOR THE CENTENNIAL GAZETTEER OF THE UNITED STATES.

No book has ever been published of such universal interest to the American people. It appeals to no particular class alone, but to all classes; to men and women in all professions, creeds, occupations and political opinions—to Farmers, Lawyers, Business Men, Mechanics, Physicians, Politicians, Teachers, Students, Manufacturers, Salesmen, men of learning and men who can only read, to old and young. All want it as a book of constant reference, and to preserve for their children and children's children as the only complete and reliable work, showing the gigantic results of THE FIRST ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF THE GREATEST REPUBLIC THE WORLD EVER SAW. It is not a luxury but a necessity to every well-informed American citizen. Agents make $100 to $300 per month. Send for circular. ZIEGLER & McCURDY, Philadelphia, Pa. May 12w4

TEETH!

"I WOULD GO A THOUSAND MILES TO HAVE TEETH EXTRACTED with GAS, AS IT IS DONE AT Dr. COLTON'S IN THE NEW YORK COOPER INSTITUTE. So wrote a patient on our scroll after having twelve extracted. His name on our numbered scroll is opposite 70,729. M28w
